Video Response

Contemplate:

How does Dr. Hattie nuance learning objectives/goals?

Breakout

What scenarios do you find most challenging to facilitate?

Deliverable: Type these out as bullets using a minus sign in front of each. You'll paste these into the chat when we are back in our large group.

Protocols

- They establish key expectations early in the term
- They become part of a shared learning culture
- Discuss them with students

Team Building

- The success of learning groups will correspond to the level of safety and trust they develop early in the term.
- Maintain Groups for the term
- Invest in team building exercises

Team Building

Good-Bad-Ugly - Annotation Exercise

In The Good, Bad, and the Ugly, the group comes to consensus on what they desire from their learning team and collectively define what a safe group looks like in concrete terms.

GOOD

BAD

UGLY

Team Building - Etiquette

- Review the Etiquette Exercise document
- Discuss #1 in your groups

DISCUSSION GUIDES

- For any learning activity with more than one prompt
- Keep it simple
- Timebox each question or phase
- Have a clear deliverable

Informal Checks

In the News

In your groups, share a google news search screen. Our class is an instructional design course. Search the news and note what you found most interesting. Be prepared to share what you found. Share the titles and short explanations, not the links.

- 4 minutes for discovery
- We'll chat over what you discovered when we return to the large group

Ponder

How do we facilitate this activity?

(use of chat)

Ponder

Takeaways: From our time together, what did you find most valuable or desire to put into action?

(chat and share)
