PURPOSE

This Agreement is entered into between Cleveland State University, hereinafter referred to as the "University" or the "Administration," and Service Employees International Union District 1199 WV/KY/OH, hereinafter referred to as the "Union," and constitutes a binding agreement between the parties.

This Agreement has as its purpose the promotion of positive relations between the University and the Union; the enhancement of mutual dignity and respect; the establishment of an equitable and peaceful procedure for the resolution of differences; and the clarification of certain rights, privileges and obligations of the parties together with certain working conditions.

ARTICLE II

RECOGNITION

Section 1. The University hereby recognizes Service Employees International Union District 1199 WV/KY/OH, as the sole and exclusive representative for the purpose of collective bargaining with respect to wages, benefits, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment for all members of the bargaining unit described below, pursuant to certification by the Ohio State Employment Relations Board (SERB) in Case No. 97-REP-10-0262 dated March 26, 1998, and modified by SERB in Case No. 01-REP-06-0150 on December 6, 2001, upon the merger of Service Employees International Union District 925 (Ohio) with Service Employees International Union District 1199.

Section 2. The bargaining unit shall consist of full-time professional employees and part-time professional employees with annualized full-time equivalent (FTE) of .5 or greater, including employees in temporary positions with a contract of one (1) year or longer duration or temporary employees in their current position for one year or longer. When appropriate to the position, FTE will be calculated by dividing the annually scheduled hours by 2080. The positions included in the bargaining unit are listed in Appendix A.

Section 3. Excluded from the bargaining unit are supervisors, management level employees, confidential employees, seasonal employees, casual employees, police, and students as defined in Ohio Revised Code 4117, classified employees, faculty, deans and part-time and temporary employees not described in Section 2 of this Article as included. The University shall create a list of non-bargaining unit professional positions no later than December 31, 2006, and shall send a copy of the list to the Union President and the District 1199 Union Representative. A copy of the list will be kept on file in the Department of Human Resources Development and Labor Relations.

Section 4. Unit Clarification. If the Union believes that bargaining unit work is being performed by non-bargaining unit employees, the Union shall submit a letter with the details to the Vice President for Business Affairs and Finance or designee. The parties shall meet to discuss the matter within ten (10) working days of receipt of the letter. Prior to the meeting, the University shall provide the Union with documentation it has collected regarding the issue. If there is no satisfactory resolution within twenty (20) working days of the original submission, unless the parties mutually agree to extend the time limits, the Union may petition the SERB for unit clarification.

Section 5. The Union retains the right to grieve or take other appropriate action if it believes the University is attempting to improperly erode the bargaining unit.

Section 6. Where used in this Agreement, the term “employee” includes all employees of the bargaining unit except where specifically stated.

Section 7. Whenever a male or female pronoun or adjective is used, it refers to persons of either sex.

ARTICLE III

NON-DISCRIMINATION AND AFFIRMATIVE ACTION

Section 1. Both the University and the Union recognize their respective responsibilities for non-discrimination under Federal and State civil rights laws, fair employment practice acts, and other similar constitutional and statutory requirements. Therefore, both parties hereby reaffirm their legal and moral commitments not to discriminate with regard to race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, sexual orientation, handicap or disability, employee organization, veteran status or political organization.

Section 2. The Administration affirms its established policy of non-discrimination in employment (appointment, promotion, layoff, etc.). The Administration declares its determination to actively recruit, retain and promote qualified women and minorities.

The University agrees to provide the Union with a copy of the Affirmative Action report that is submitted to the Department of Labor.

Section 3. The University and the Union agree that sexual harassment is an offensive form of discrimination and agree that acts of sexual harassment are prohibited.

Section 4. Nothing in this Article shall preclude any member of the bargaining unit from protecting her or his rights to be free from unlawful discrimination pursuant to any Federal or State law which addresses discrimination directly, and without resort to the grievance and arbitration procedures contained in this Agreement except as provided in Section 6, below.

Section 5. Bargaining unit members shall be free to join or not to join the Union as they may choose, to process grievances and to exercise such other rights as they may have under Ohio Revised Code Section 4117.03.

There will be no reprisals of any kind, or threats thereof, taken against any employee by reason of her/his membership or non-membership in the Union, or participation or nonparticipation in any of its activities, or participation in the grievance procedure.

Section 6. The University and the Union agree that any claims of unlawful discrimination under Federal and State civil rights laws and/or Fair Employment Practice Acts and any claims of discrimination based on sexual orientation shall not be processed through the grievance procedure set forth in this Labor Agreement except as provided herein. Such claims shall be first discussed by the claimant with the University's Director of Affirmative Action as a means of achieving an informal resolution of the claim. If informal resolution is not possible, the claimant may file a formal written complaint with the University's Office of Affirmative Action. That Office will then conduct a thorough investigation and its findings, conclusions, and proposed action will be discussed with the claimant. A copy of the findings, conclusions, and proposed action will be forwarded to the University President. If the claimant is not satisfied with the resolution proposed by the Office of Affirmative Action the parties, by mutual agreement, may submit the issue to grievance mediation (See Article VIII, Section 3). If mediation does not resolve the matter or if the parties do not agree to mediation, relief may be sought through direct appeal to the University President within ten (10) working days of the receipt by the claimant of the findings, conclusions, and proposed action of the Office of Affirmative Action or following the conclusion of mediation, whichever is applicable.

At any stage in the presentation of a complaint, the complainant shall have the right to be accompanied, represented and advised by a representative of his or her own choosing from the Union or the University community. Complaints heard or meetings required under this procedure shall normally be held during working hours, unless otherwise expressly agreed by the Union and the University.

ARTICLE IV

NO STRIKE/NO LOCKOUT

Section 1. The Administration and the Union subscribe to the principle that any and all differences arising under this Agreement should be resolved by peaceful and appropriate means without any interruption of the University's programs and operations.

Section 2. The Union and its officials agree that so long as this Agreement is in effect, they shall not call, engage in, or assist in any way, any strike, sympathy strike, slowdown, stoppage of work, concerted effort not to meet classes, boycott, or any other concerted act that impedes the normal operation of the University.

Section 3. No member of the bargaining unit shall instigate or participate, directly or indirectly, in any strike, sympathy strike, slowdown, stoppage of work, concerted effort not to meet classes, boycott, or in any other concerted act that impedes the normal operations of the University.

Section 4. During the term of this Agreement, there shall be no lockout of members of the bargaining unit by the Administration.

Section 5. Any violation of Section 3 above will be just cause for disciplinary action in accordance with Article IX of this Agreement.

Section 6. The Union shall inform all members of the bargaining unit concerning their obligations under the provisions of this Article and the necessity of complying with those obligations and shall further inform members of the bargaining unit that the Union does not sanction or approve of noncompliance with the provisions of this Article.

ARTICLE V

MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

Section 1. The Union recognizes the University as the body of authority vested exclusively with the right to manage and operate the University. The University shall have the right to take actions it considers necessary and proper to affect any management policy, expressed or implied, except as expressly limited under this Agreement. Nothing in this Article shall be construed to restrict or to limit any management authority.

Section 2. Except as limited by the terms of this Agreement, the University's management rights include, but are not limited to, the right to:

A. Determine matters of inherent managerial policy that include, but are not limited to, areas of discretion and policy such as the functions and programs of the University, standards of services, its overall budget, utilization of technology, and organizational structure;

ARTICLE VI

CHECKOFF AND FAIR SHARE FEES

Section 1. The University will deduct any initiation fees and dues levied in accordance with the Constitution and Bylaws of the Union from the pay of members of the bargaining unit upon receipt from the Union of individual signed authorization cards executed by the member for that purpose and bearing his signature.

Section 2. The University's obligation to make deductions shall terminate automatically upon receipt of revocation of authorization within the thirty (30) day period prior to the termination of this contract or upon the termination of employment or transfer of an employee to a job classification outside the bargaining unit.

Section 3. All employees who are covered by this agreement and who are not members of the Union and who have been employed by the University for sixty (60) days or more shall pay a fair share fee not greater than the dues paid by members of the Union. Said fair share fee shall be paid by payroll deduction as provided in this Article.

Section 4. All authorized deductions will be made from the employee's pay on a regular monthly basis in the first and second paycheck of the month. The University shall deduct from the first and second paycheck of each month of each non-member of the recognized bargaining unit a fair share fee in an amount determined by the Union, but not greater than the amount of monthly Union dues. All deductions shall be transmitted to the Union no later than the 15th day following the end of the month in which the deduction is made together with a list of the members of the bargaining unit paying such dues or fees by payroll deduction, and upon receipt the Union shall assume full responsibility for the disposition of all funds deducted.

Section 5. The Union shall furnish the name, title, and address of the authorized person or organization to whom the authorized deductions shall be sent by the University.

Section 6. The Union shall indemnify and hold the University and any of its agents harmless against any and all claims, demands, suits, and other forms of liability that may arise out of, or by reason of action taken or not taken, by the University for the purpose of complying with any of the provisions of this Article or in reliance on any notice or authorization form furnished under any of the provisions of this Article.

Section 7. The Union will provide the University with packets of information about the Union to be distributed by the University at new employee orientation.

Section 8. Voluntary Payroll Deductions. Upon an employee's voluntary written assignment filed at least three (3) weeks in advance, the University agrees to deduct from the employee's wages on a regular basis, amounts due and payable to COPE, United Way, Community Shares, and other organizations currently recognized under University policy. The amounts so deducted shall be mailed or otherwise forwarded to the designated organization in a timely fashion as required.

It is expressly understood that the University shall assume no liability in connection with such voluntary deductions. All disputes and adjustments shall be matters to be resolved between the employee involved and the recognized organization.

The University shall not be held liable for any consequence of either failure to make an authorized deduction or any mistakes in connection therewith.

The employees agree to indemnify, defend and save the University harmless against any and all claims, demands, suits or other form of liability that shall arise out of or by reason of action taken by the University in reliance upon the voluntary authorization described in this Section 8.

The University, on the occurrence of one of the following, shall terminate any deduction described in this Section 8:

- (1) The death of the employee;
- (2) The termination of the employee's employment under this Agreement;
- (3) Written request of the employee filed at least three (3) weeks in advance of the effective date of termination; in which case, the University will not be required to honor another voluntary assignment filed by the employee for a period of one (1) year from the date of termination.

ARTICLE VII

Upon obtaining prior approval from the employee's supervisor, the officer or delegate shall be permitted to investigate grievances or conduct union business during working hours without loss of pay. If an officer/delegate abuses any or all of the privileges of this Section 1, such privileges shall be removed by the University.

Section 2. Release Time. In order to enable the Union better to discharge its duties and responsibilities as the exclusive bargaining agent, the University shall grant release time without loss of wages, benefits, or other privileges to bargaining unit members with the following conditions:

Section 3. Union Representatives. The University shall recognize up to twelve (12) officers and delegates for the purpose of administering the collective bargaining agreement and adjudicating grievances. The Union will inform the University of the identity of officers and delegates of the Union on an annual basis with updates as needed. The Union will provide the University with a list of alternate delegates who shall assume the duties and rights of delegates when the regular delegate is absent or if a conflict of interest requires the regular delegate to withdraw from the matter involved.

Section 4. Use of University Facilities. The Union shall be permitted reasonable use, to the extent permitted by law, of University facilities, services, and publications on the same basis and at the same cost as other recognized campus organizations.

Section 11. Parking Permits. The University shall provide faculty/staff daily parking permits to no more than two (2) Union business representatives.

Section 12. Agreement Copies. Copies of this Agreement shall be printed at the University's expense and distributed to all members of the bargaining unit. Upon hire, the University will provide each new employee in a bargaining unit position with a copy of this Agreement. The University shall provide the Union with fifty (50) additional copies of the Agreement free of charge.

Section 13. Committees. Union representatives appointed to University committees shall receive paid release time for attendance at committee meetings scheduled during their regular work hours.

Section 16. New Employee Orientations. A Union representative will be afforded time with new bargaining unit employees during the new employee orientation process for orientation to the Union and this Agreement.

ARTICLE VIII

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Section 1. It is mutually understood that the prompt presentation, adjustment, and/or answering of grievances is desirable in the interest of sound relations between the employees and the University. The prompt and fair disposition of grievances involves important and equal obligations and responsibilities, both joint and independent, on the part of the representatives of each party to protect and preserve the Grievance Procedure as an orderly means of resolving grievances.

Section 2. A grievance is a dispute concerning the wages, fringe benefits, hours, and working conditions set forth in this Agreement or the interpretation and/or application of and/or compliance with any provision of this Agreement or University rules or policies. Any bargaining unit member or the Union may bring a grievance under this procedure. A grievance may be withdrawn by the Union at any time.

When such grievances arise, the following procedure shall be observed:

Step 1. An employee shall first present a grievance in writing to the employee's designated supervisor within ten (10) working days of the event upon which the grievance is based in order to achieve a resolution. The grievant may be accompanied by a Union representative at this Step 1 meeting. The designated supervisor shall respond in writing to the employee and the Union within ten (10) working days of the date of the Step 1 meeting. If a resolution is reached, the parties shall sign a mutual release indicating a settlement of the grievance. A resolution of a grievance at Step 1 shall not be precedent setting. The Department of Human Resources Development and Labor Relations ("Department of Human Resources" or "HRD"), the employee's Department Head or other appropriate administrator, and the Union shall be notified of any Step 1 meeting and any subsequent adjustment by the designated supervisor if an HRD or Union representative was not present at the meeting. Such adjustments shall not be inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement. If the matter cannot be resolved through the Step 1 meeting process, the employee who wishes to pursue the grievance further shall follow the steps below.

Step 2. If the grievance is not satisfactorily settled in Step 1, the grievant and/or the Union may file a written appeal with the University's Vice President for Business Affairs and Finance or designee within ten (10) working days after receipt of the Step 1 response. The Vice President or designee shall schedule a meeting with the grievant, the employee's Department Head or other appropriate administrator, and/or a Union representative within ten (10) working days after receipt of the appeal. The Vice President or designee shall issue a written decision to the grievant within ten (10) working days from the date that the meeting was held. A copy of said response shall be sent to the Union representative.

In the event of a suspension or discharge, a grievance can be initially submitted by the Union or grievant to the Vice President for Business Affairs and Finance or designee within ten (10) working days of the suspension or discharge.

Step 3. If the grievance is not satisfactorily settled in Step 2, the Union may submit the matter to arbitration by so notifying the Vice President for Business Affairs and Finance or designee in writing within ten (10) working days after the next regularly scheduled Union Executive Board meeting, but no later than forty-five (45) calendar days after receipt of the Step 2 response.

Section 3. Mediation. The parties may mutually agree to pursue mediation of a grievance in accordance with the Rules of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (“FMCS”) or through a private mediator mutually appointed by the parties, within the forty-five (45) calendar day period at Step 3, prior to written notification by the Union to the Vice President for Business Affairs and Finance or designee of the Union's intent to arbitrate. Such an agreement among the parties will be confirmed in writing. If mediation is utilized, the Union need not notify the Vice President or designee of the Union's intent to arbitrate until twenty-one (21) calendar days after the conclusion of mediation.

A. If mediation through FMCS is pursued, the mediation will be pursued and conducted in accordance with the Rules of the FMCS in effect on the date that the request for mediation was sent. The mediation will be conducted within thirty (30) calendar days of the appointment of a mediator.

B. Any party may end mediation at any time after participation in the mediation process by giving written notice to the mediator and to the other party or parties. The mediator may withdraw at any time by giving written notice to the parties.

C. The fees and expenses of mediation, if any, will be borne equally by the University and the Union.

Section 4. Arbitration. The Union shall notify the University of its intent to appeal the grievance to arbitration. Upon written notice of the Union's intent to arbitrate a grievance, the parties shall proceed to arbitration pursuant to the following procedure.

A. Within sixty (60) calendar days of the ratification of this Agreement, the parties shall meet and submit names and resumes of potential arbitrators to jointly create a panel of six (6) arbitrators. The parties must agree on the list of arbitrators selected. Once per year during this Agreement, the parties will meet to review the panel of arbitrators and determine the continued use of the existing list of panel members. The parties shall endeavor to select arbitrators who will hold hearings within thirty (30) calendar days of their selection and who will render a decision within thirty (30) calendar days from the conclusion of the hearing.

B. Upon receipt of a notice to arbitrate, the arbitrator may be selected by mutual consent of the University and the Union from the panel. If the parties cannot agree, they shall choose an arbitrator by alternatively striking names from the panel until one (1) name remains as the arbitrator. The order of striking shall be determined by a coin toss. The arbitrator shall be notified as soon as possible of his selection and a hearing shall be held, if possible, within thirty (30) days of the arbitrator's confirmation that he has accepted the appointment as arbitrator. The arbitration procedure and hearing shall be governed by the American Arbitration Association's then applicable rules and regulations.

C. If the need for an arbitrator arises and the University and the Union have not selected an arbitration panel or are unable to select a panel, the American Arbitration Association shall submit up to three (3) panels of arbitrators to each party and the arbitrator will be chosen and the matter shall proceed in accordance with the Association's then applicable rules and regulations.

D. In the event a matter proceeds to arbitration, the arbitrator shall have jurisdiction only over the matter(s) submitted. The arbitrator shall have no authority to alter in any way the terms and conditions of this Agreement or University Rules or Policies.

E. The fees and other expenses of the arbitration and arbitrator shall be shared equally. Any University employee called as a witness by either side will continue to receive the regular rate of pay while attending such hearing for those hours the employee would have been scheduled to work.

Section 5. Final and Binding. The Grievance Procedure set forth herein shall be the exclusive method of reviewing and settling grievances between the University and the Union and/or between the University and an employee(s), and by invoking this procedure, the Union and the University waive the right to litigate or resolve such grievances in any other forum or by any other procedure. All decisions of arbitrators and all pre-arbitration grievance settlements reached by the Union and the University shall be final, conclusive, and binding on the University, the Union, and the employee(s) involved.

Section 6. Limitations. This grievance procedure shall not limit the right of any employee to present a grievance and have it adjusted without intervention of the Union, as required by the Ohio Revised Code Section 4117.03 (A) (5), as long as the adjustment is not inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement and provided that the Union shall have notice of and the opportunity to have a representative present at the final adjustment proceeding.

Section 7. General Provisions.

A. Any grievance that is not processed in a timely manner by the Union shall be considered withdrawn. Any grievance that is not processed in a timely manner by the University shall be deemed to have been appealed to the next step. However, the parties may, by mutual written agreement, waive any steps or any of the time limits of this Article. Requests for extensions of the time limits shall not be unreasonably denied by either party. The parties will accept facsimiles to meet any deadline herein specified.

B. Grievances may be processed by aggrieved employees during working hours, with no loss of pay or benefits. Hearings and meetings held under this procedure shall be conducted at a time and place that will afford a fair and reasonable opportunity for all persons entitled to be present to attend. Such meetings shall be held during working time with no loss of pay or benefits.

C. There shall be no retaliation or adverse action taken against any employee who files a grievance or participates in the grievance procedure, regardless of the outcome of the grievance.

D. Time limits referred to in this Article as “working days” shall be defined to be Monday through Friday, exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, formal holidays recognized by the University, and periods when the University is officially closed for business.

E. The Union and the grievant will receive written copies of all notices and dispositions pertaining to a grievance.

F. If a grievance affects a group of members of the bargaining unit from more than one department, or if it arises from the actions of an authority higher than the grievant's designated supervisor, it may initially be submitted at Step 2.

ARTICLE IX

DISCIPLINARY ACTION

Section 1. The University shall not take disciplinary action against an employee without just cause.

Section 2. Disciplinary action will be based on an evaluation of all the facts including the nature and extent of the violation, previous conduct and possible extenuating circumstances. The University shall follow progressive discipline, which shall generally include: (1) first written warning; (2) second written warning; (3) suspension; and (4) termination. Although the University favors progressive discipline, nothing herein shall limit the right of the University to use any of the disciplinary steps, consistent with requirements of just cause, for any offense that is of such a serious nature that use of progressive discipline is not appropriate or warranted.

Section 3. Due Process. All employees shall have the right to Union representation at all steps of the disciplinary procedure. Beginning with the second written warning, an employee and the Union shall receive three (3) working days notice that a disciplinary meeting will take place. The written notification will state clearly and specifically the nature of the problem and the proposed action, advise the employee of his right to have a Union representative present and set a date and time for the meeting. If the date and time are not mutually agreeable, the supervisor and the employee shall arrange another date and time. Included with that notification will be all documentation upon which the charges against the employee are based. For suspensions and terminations, the Department of Human Resources Development and Labor Relations will notify the employee, the Union President and District 1199 Union Representative of the date and time of the meeting, and both the Vice President for Business Affairs and Finance or designee and Union President or designee shall be involved in the meeting. The District 1199 Union Representative also shall have the option of participating in the meeting. The Vice President for Business Affairs and Finance or designee shall preside at the meeting. Normally, no discipline beyond the second written warning shall be imposed until after a disciplinary meeting, during which the employee and her/his Union representative shall have the opportunity to refute the charges.

In the event the Administration finds it necessary to remove an employee from University property before the three (3) day notice or meeting, the employee may be suspended with pay pending the conduct of the meeting, which shall be held within three (3) business days of the suspension at a time that is mutually acceptable to the parties involved.

Section 4. Employees have the right to appeal disciplinary action through the grievance procedure as set forth in Article VIII. Employees subject to discipline, up to and including discharge, shall receive notification of disciplinary actions in writing. All employees shall have the right to attach a written rebuttal to all written disciplinary documents.

Section 5. Written disciplinary documents for offenses that were subject to progressive discipline under Section 2 above shall not be considered for purposes of discipline after eighteen (18) months from entry provided no further discipline for a similar infraction has occurred since that incident.

ARTICLE X

PROBATIONARY PERIOD

Section 1. All new employees shall be considered to be on probation for a period of one (1) year from the date of hire in a bargaining unit position. The probationary period may be extended by mutual agreement between the University and the Union up to ninety (90) calendar days beyond the expiration date of the original probationary period. An employee may be discharged for any reason during the probationary period and such discharge shall not be subject to the grievance procedure. A temporary employee in her/his current position who becomes a member of the bargaining unit after one (1) year in the same position, in accordance with Article II (Recognition), shall have time spent in such position credited toward satisfying the probationary period for the particular job involved.

Section 2. If an employee is discharged or quits while on probation and is later rehired, he/she shall be considered a new employee and subject to the above provisions.

Section 3. If possible, new employees shall receive a copy of their job description upon hire. New employees will receive training on job-related procedures and policies.

Section 4. During the probationary period, the employee shall receive at least one written evaluation from the supervisor at least ninety (90) days before the end of the probationary period.

ARTICLE XI

PERSONNEL FILES

Section 1. All personnel files in the University are public information. The Department of Human Resources Development and Labor Relations is responsible for the creation, maintenance and coordination of the official University personnel files for bargaining unit employees. The official personnel file ("Personnel File") for each employee shall be maintained in the Department of Human Resources Development and Labor Relations. LABOR/MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

Section 1. The Labor/Management Committee shall meet to discuss matters of mutual concern. The meetings will be held every other month for one and one half (1½) hours unless otherwise mutually agreed. The parties shall mutually agree upon the time, date, and place of the meetings. At any time the parties may mutually agree that there is no need for the committee to meet or conversely that more frequent meetings are necessary.

Section 3. In order to call a meeting, either party must submit a written agenda describing the topics of discussion. In the event the Committee reaches a majority decision, it shall make recommendation(s) to the Vice President for Business Affairs and Finance or designee. Committee recommendations neither alter the provisions of this Agreement nor constitute continued negotiations on terms and conditions of employment.

Section 4. The Committee will request that the FMCS train the Committee in utilizing a problem-solving approach in Labor/Management Committee meetings no later than October 31, 2006.

ARTICLE XIII

PERFORMANCE EVALUATION

Section 1. An annual evaluation of each non-probationary employee shall take place in order to provide performance feedback to the employee, identify areas of improvement, establish goals and objectives and afford the employee the opportunity to ask questions and make suggestions concerning the employee's work or career development. The evaluation may include a review of the employee's job description. A department/division shall notify staff of its decision to utilize either a calendar year or fiscal year evaluation schedule under the following timelines:

A. An annual evaluation shall take place prior to March 1st each year for the previous calendar year (January 1 – December 31). If the employee's supervisor is unable to complete the evaluation by March 1, the employee will be notified in writing; but in any event the evaluation will be completed no later than June 1; or

B. An annual evaluation shall take place prior to September 1st each year for the previous fiscal calendar year (July 1 – June 30). If the employee's supervisor is unable to complete the evaluation by September 1, the employee will be notified in writing; but in any event the evaluation will be completed no later than December 1.

Section 2. HRD will notify the employee's supervisor one (1) month in advance of an employee's performance evaluation date. Pursuant to current practice, the performance evaluation form shall be filled out by an employee's supervisor and the employee. The supervisor and the employee shall arrange to exchange concurrently the completed evaluation forms at least 24 hours before discussing the evaluation.

If an employee has been reassigned to a new supervisor within one month of the evaluation date, the new supervisor should consult with the previous supervisor in completing the evaluation if possible. If an employee receives approximately equal supervision from more than one person, those supervisors shall complete the evaluation together.

Section 3. The completed Performance Evaluation Form will be discussed with the employee. At the time of the discussion, the employee shall have the opportunity to submit any supplemental materials that may aid the evaluation process. The Supervisor and/or employee may recognize additional duties and responsibilities assumed by the employee during the evaluation period. After being discussed with the employee, the evaluation shall be signed by both the Supervisor and employee. The employee's signature will indicate only that the evaluation was received by and reviewed by the employee. A copy of the completed annual Performance Evaluation Form will be furnished to the employee at the time the employee signs the form. The employee's signature does not indicate agreement with the content of the evaluation. The employee shall have the right to respond in writing to any written comments made on the employee's evaluation and to have those comments attached to the evaluation and included in the employee's official personnel file.

Section 4. Peer Review of Librarians in the University Library. The administrative evaluation of librarians in the University Library shall include a peer review component as previously established.

ARTICLE XIV

JOB CLASSIFICATIONS

Section 1. New Job Classification.

A. The Union President or designee and the District 1199 Representative will be notified in writing of the creation of any new positions in the professional staff no later than thirty (30) calendar days prior to posting or advertising for the position. The notice shall include a position description. The University and the Union shall meet and discuss the inclusion and/or exclusion of such position within the bargaining unit and, if within the unit, to assess the appropriate salary grade.

B. If the new position is included in the bargaining unit and the University and the Union are unable to reach agreement on the appropriate salary grade within ten (10) University working days from the commencement of the discussions, the University shall establish a temporary rate and classification and will promptly notify the Union in writing. Thereafter, the Union can file a grievance to Step 2 of the grievance procedure. If the matter goes to arbitration, the Arbitrator shall have the authority to establish a new wage rate which shall be retroactive to the onset of the position, but only within the parameters of the current professional staff job classification system and market factors.

C. If the parties disagree on the inclusion of the position in the bargaining unit within ten (10) University working days from the commencement of discussion, either party may invoke proceedings with SERB as the exclusive method of resolving the issue of inclusion or exclusion of a new position to be included in the bargaining unit. Such a unit clarification petition to SERB shall be limited to the new position only. If SERB determines the new position to be included in the bargaining unit, the position shall then be reviewed for the appropriate salary grade as in Section 1.A and B, above.

Section 2. Official Job Description.

A. The University shall provide each employee and the Union a current copy of her/his official job description.

B. The University will revise an employee's job description due to significant changes (additions or deletions) in job duties and/or responsibilities. Prior to revising the job description, the University will consult with the affected employee. The University will not, without the concurrence of the Union, add duties that are not related to the basic function and responsibility of a position. The Union will be notified in writing at least two weeks in advance of the proposed changes to a position.

C. Within thirty (30) calendar days of an employee's initial appointment, transfer, promotion or reclassification, the Director of Compensation or designee shall provide an official job description to that employee.

D. Revisions in the duties of a position may result in the assignment of a position to a higher pay grade.

Section 3. Reclassification.

A. A request for reclassification may be submitted by an employee, the Union, and/or a supervisor/department head. Prior to a request for reclassification, an employee shall be entitled to review a copy of his/her job description, the Point Factor Evaluation System and the specific point factors for his/her position. A Reclassification Request Form must be submitted to HRD and the Union President. The Request Form is available through HRD or at HRD's web page through the University's web site. The request shall be signed by the employee's supervisor indicating it has been reviewed. If the supervisor refuses to sign, the employee may forward the request to the HRD noting that the supervisor refused to sign. Requests for reclassification may be submitted at any time during the calendar year but only after the employee has performed the additional duties supporting the reclassification for at least four (4) months preceding the submission of the request.

B. A job audit and/or other investigation may also be conducted.

C. As part of the reclassification review process, HRD shall provide the employee and the supervisor/department head with a draft of the revised job description. Within fourteen (14) calendar days after receipt of the revised job description, the employee shall submit in writing to HRD his agreement with or identify any substantive disagreements about the job description. Following receipt, HRD shall review the disputed items, if any, with the employee and/or supervisor. Unless subject to an agreed extension or waiver of time limits, an employee's failure to respond within fourteen (14) calendar days shall constitute a withdrawal of the reclassification review request in which case Section 3.F. below shall not apply.

D. HRD and the Reclassification Review Committee shall use the Point Factor Evaluation Plan developed from the Peat Marwick Study in 1996, or a successor plan. The criterion upon which reclassification will be based is current job content. The point of comparison may be from the initial grading of the job or from the last reclassification. For example, changes in job duties, increases in job responsibilities and/or the restructuring of a position's duties shall be examined to decide if a position should be reclassified.

E. HRD will issue a written decision on the request to the employee, the Union President and the supervisor/department head within ninety (90) calendar days of receipt of the request. The written decision will include a written rationale for the decision and quote the contractual time limit for an appeal. The written rationale shall include the employee's scores and point totals before and after the reclassification request. The affected employee, the Union and/or the supervisor/department head may submit an appeal. A written appeal must be submitted to the Union President and the Director of Compensation for review within ten (10) University working days of the employee's receipt of the HRD's written decision. The Director of Compensation will immediately forward the appeal to the Union/Management Reclassification Review Committee (hereinafter the "Reclassification Review Committee") which shall review the reclassification and make its decision within thirty (30) calendar days after the receipt of the appeal. A written decision and rationale shall be forwarded to the employee, the Union President, the supervisor/department head, and HRD within that time period. Prior to convening, the members of the Reclassification Review Committee will be provided with the employee's scores and point totals before and after the reclassification request, the scores of other positions HRD utilized in its analysis, if any, and a copy of the Point Factor Position Evaluation System completed for the employee.

1. The Reclassification Review Committee shall consist of two (2) Union and two (2) Management appointees who shall be voting members of the Committee.

2. The Reclassification Review Committee will also consist of one (1) alternate for each side who shall participate in the place of a regular member as needed or as described in Section 3.E.3 below.

3. If a Reclassification Review Committee member is from the same department as the appealing employee, he will not participate in the Committee proceedings and will be replaced on the Committee by an alternate member.

4. A majority decision of the Reclassification Review Committee shall be final and binding upon the employee, the Union and the University. If the Reclassification Review Committee is unable to reach a decision by a majority vote, the request shall be considered denied. If the Reclassification Review Committee is deadlocked, then the employee may submit a grievance at Step 2 of the Grievance Procedure.

F. The same position may be submitted for review no more than once in any twelve (12) month period by the same incumbent, the Union and/or his/her supervisor/department head. This twelve (12) month period begins with the first submission of a request.

G. Time limits addressed within this Article may be extended or waived with the mutual consent of the parties.

H. An employee promoted to a position in a higher salary grade will receive the salary adjustment effective on the first day in the new position. An employee who is reclassified to a higher salary grade or whose duties and/or responsibilities significantly increase but whose points do not result in a reclassification to a higher grade will receive a salary adjustment retroactive to the beginning of the pay period following the date the reclassification request is received in HRD.

I. Salary changes resulting from a reclassification are addressed in Article XVI, Salary, Section 6.

Section 4. The University agrees to notify the Union in writing and to solicit Union input when hiring consultants for job classification and reclassification projects that affect the bargaining unit.

ARTICLE XV

HOURS OF WORK

Section 1. The University recognizes that professional staff who are assigned to work within their positions more than forty (40) hours or more than five (5) eight hour days in a normal work week shall be entitled either to additional time off or to have their work schedules adjusted, or both, to compensate such employees for such additional hours or days worked. This entitlement shall also apply to salaried part-time professional staff who are assigned to work additional hours within their positions beyond their normal schedule.

A. The policy and procedures for affording compensatory time to professional staff will be in accordance with Appendix B-1, Compensatory Time Policy for SEIU District 1199 Bargaining Unit Employees, and its attachments, and Appendix B-2, Side Letter of Agreement regarding the Implementation of the August 23, 2004 Revisions to the Fair Labor Standards Act pertaining to overtime and compensatory time for non-exempt professional staff.

B. Where appropriate and feasible, each University department or college will submit to the Vice President for Business Affairs and Finance or designee a statement covering a procedure for adjustment of professional staff work schedules to accommodate those employees who customarily work more than forty (40) hours within their positions in a normal work week or for salaried part-time professional staff who are assigned to work additional hours within their positions beyond their normal work schedule.

Section 2. Adjustment of work schedules under this Article may be considered when:

A. The affected employee customarily works more than forty (40) hours, or more than five (5) eight hour days in a normal work week; and

B. The department or college can reasonably accommodate flexible work schedules without interference or disruption of normal operations.

C. Where a professional staff employee's work schedule does not comply with subsection A above, nothing shall preclude an informal arrangement between the employee and supervisor for a flexible work schedule.

D. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the University may choose to offer to particular employee(s) or classification(s) a flexible work schedule or other creative scheduling patterns that may assist in staff recruitment and/or retention. In implementation of a flexible work schedule, the University may permit a full-time overtime exempt employee(s) to work fewer than forty (40) hours in a week and more than forty hours in the other week within the same period. In such instances, employee(s) permitted a flexible schedule will be eligible for compensatory time only after eighty (80) hours in a pay period.

E. Subject to the operational needs of the University, a supervisor may approve an employee's request for flextime (which may include trading shifts, where applicable) to be used for pre-scheduled medical appointment(s). In such case, the supervisor may request verification of the employee's attendance at the medical appointment.

Section 3. Professional staff who work less than forty (40) hours in any workweek shall not have their salary docked; but their accumulated compensatory time, if any, may be docked accordingly.

Section 4.

A. Compensatory time under this Article shall be accumulated on an "hour for hour" basis in increments of .5 hours.

B. Any compensatory time accumulated under this Article must be used within one (1) year of the week it is earned or the time will be forfeited.

C. The use of compensatory time shall be scheduled by mutual agreement between the employee and supervisor, with the supervisor's assent not being unreasonably withheld. However, compensatory time off shall not interfere with or impede normal departmental operations.

Section 6. Lunch Break. Employees are entitled to take a lunch break during their workday consistent with the operational needs of the department.

Section 7. Schedule Changes. In the event it becomes necessary to change a regular work schedule, the Union will be notified at least two (2) weeks in advance of the change except in emergencies.

A. Effective July 1, 2006, the salary range for each salary grade effective July 1, 2005, shall be increased upward by 3.33% as shown in Appendix C for non-technology positions and Appendix D for technology positions, and employees whose salaries are below the new range shall have their salaries adjusted to the minimum of the appropriate salary grade prior to the application of any other salary increases.

B. Employees whose salaries exceed the maximum of their grade (redlined) shall receive their 3.33% increase in the form of a lump sum payment. If a portion of their increase is above the maximum of their salary grade, that portion shall be paid in a lump sum.

Section 2. Effective July 1, 2007, employees with a continuous employment date on or before March 31, 2007, shall receive a 3.16% across-the-board base salary increase.

A. The salary range for each salary grade shall be moved upward by 3.16% as shown in Appendix E for non-technology positions and Appendix F for technology positions, and employees whose salaries are below the new range shall have their salaries adjusted to the minimum of the appropriate salary grade prior to the application of any other salary increases.

Section 3. Effective July 1, 2008, employees with a continuous employment date on or before March 31, 2008, shall receive a 3.16% across-the-board base salary increase.

A. The salary range for each salary grade shall be moved upward by 3.16% as shown in Appendix G for non-technology positions and Appendix H for technology positions, and employees whose salaries are below the new range shall have their salaries adjusted to the minimum of the appropriate salary grade prior to the application of any other salary increases.

Section 4. Technology Positions. Positions that are compensated under the Technology Scales in Appendix D, Appendix F, and Appendix H are listed in Appendix I.

Section 5. Lateral Changes in Position. An employee who transfers from one position to another position in the same salary grade shall suffer no loss in pay. A salary increase will be considered for those employees whose duties and/or responsibilities significantly increase but whose points do not result in a promotion to a higher grade.

Section 6. Pay upon Promotion or Reclassification.

A. A promotion constitutes advancement to a job with greater duties and responsibilities in a higher salary grade or in the same salary grade and/or an upward position classification change where the degree of skill, effort and/or responsibility is significantly greater than the previously occupied position. An employee who moves to a position in a higher salary grade by virtue of promotion, reclassification or other means, or is eligible for an in-grade promotion, shall receive an increase of not less than 3% through 10% in base pay but not less than the minimum of the new salary range, whichever is greater. Additional increases, up to 5%, can be approved by the University President upon the recommendation of the Vice President for Business Affairs & Finance or designee. The move to a higher salary grade or salary increases under this Section 6 will not affect the employee's entitlement to any other increases in compensation that may be applicable.

B. An employee promoted to a position in a higher salary grade will receive the salary adjustment effective on the first day in the new position. An employee who is reclassified or who receives an in-grade promotion will receive the salary adjustment retroactive to the beginning of the pay period following the date the reclassification request is received in HRD.

Section 7. If an employee is demoted or applies for and receives a position in a salary grade lower than the one currently held, and if the employee's current salary is above the maximum of the lower position's salary range, then the employee's salary will be reduced to the maximum of the lower salary grade's range, effective on the first day in the position. Otherwise, the employee's salary will remain the same. The move to a lower salary grade will not affect the employee's entitlement to any other increases in compensation that may be applicable.

Section 8. Market Adjustments. In order to maintain market competitiveness or to aid in the recruitment or retention of employees, it may be necessary for the University to adjust salaries. Such adjustments will be based on survey data or other facts documenting the threat to retention or inability to recruit at current salary levels. Both the University and the Union may propose such adjustments in accordance with O.R.C. § 4117. The University, at least ten (10) days prior to initiating any action under this Section, shall provide the Union President or designee with supporting documentation for proposed market adjustments.

Section 9. Equity Adjustments.

A. An equity adjustment is a special salary action to correct an inequity that cannot be corrected within the normal salary guidelines. This adjustment is used to react to sudden shifts in the competitive market where the hiring rate of a new candidate may cause an internal inequity. Consequently, an adjustment may be applied to individual bargaining unit members or a specific classification affected by the inequity. The University, at least ten (10) days prior to initiating any action under this section, shall provide the Union President or designee with supporting documentation for proposed equity adjustments and shall satisfy its obligations under O.R.C. § 4117.

B. Effective July 1, 2007, the University shall provide 0.5% of total base Fiscal Year 2007 bargaining unit salaries increase for equity adjustments for eligible employees to cover the cost of implementing, to the degree funding is available from the 0.5% referenced in this Section 9.B., equity adjustments as recommended in April 2003 by the Joint Labor/Management Subcommittee for Equity Review. An equity adjustment shall be added to an eligible employee's base salary prior to the application of any other salary increases. If the adjustments applied in accordance with this Section are less than 0.5% of total base Fiscal Year 2007 bargaining unit salaries, the Director of Compensation & Employment shall meet with the Union President to determine how to distribute any remaining funds among employees eligible for such equity adjustments.

C. Effective July 1, 2008, the University shall provide 0.5% of total base Fiscal Year 2008 bargaining unit salaries increase for equity adjustments for eligible employees to cover the cost of implementing, to the degree funding is available from the 0.5% referenced in this Section 9.C., equity adjustments as recommended in April 2003 by the Joint Labor/Management Subcommittee for Equity Review. An equity adjustment shall be added to an eligible employee's base salary prior to the application of any other salary increases. If the adjustments applied in accordance with this Section are less than 0.5% of total base Fiscal Year 2008 bargaining unit salaries, the Director of Compensation & Employment shall meet with the Union President to determine how to distribute any remaining funds among employees eligible for such equity adjustments.

D. The Joint Labor/Management Subcommittee for Equity Review shall reconvene no later than July 1, 2008 to review the Movement through Range Program and recommend changes to the Program prior to negotiations in 2009. The Committee shall submit its recommendations, if any, to the University and the Union no later than December 31, 2008.

Section 10. Additional Compensation.

A. Compensation is permitted for additional professional services that are offered or required by the University.

B. All such services and participation shall be in addition to and exclusive of the regularly assigned duties and responsibilities performed by the employee and as described in the current job description of record.

C. No employee may receive additional compensation if the additional services occur in what would be defined and/or perceived by the supervisor as falling within the employee's regularly scheduled working hours, unless the employee requests and is granted the use of overtime, if eligible, flexible scheduling, compensatory time, vacation time, or leave without pay.

D. Compensation.

1. Full-time, 9 or 10 month contract employees who teach and who accept a summer and/or intersession teaching assignment shall be paid as per the summer and intersession provisions of this contract. Full-time, 12-month professional staff members who have a summer and/or intersession teaching assignment as part of their regular job duties and who accept an overload course(s) shall be paid for the overload course(s) as per the summer and/or intersession compensation provisions of this contract. Twelve-month employees who do not have a regular summer and/or intersession teaching assignment as part of their official job duties may teach a summer and/or intersession course(s) beyond their 40-hour week. Such employees shall be paid for those courses as per the summer and/or intersession compensation provisions of this contract.

2. Employees may teach course(s) in either their home department or in another department at the University, up to a maximum of six (6) credit hours per semester beyond their regular teaching assignment for any given semester, except summer and intersession, and shall be paid for said course(s) at the rate then current in that department to which the employee is entitled by virtue of qualifications, experience, and length of service to the University, if applicable. Such assignment(s) is considered an overload, and requires that the home department be informed and approve of the additional assignment(s). Such approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. Any grievance regarding the withholding of such approval shall be commenced at Step 2.

3. In all circumstances and at all times, an employee may choose not to accept the overload course(s).

4. Employees may provide services other than teaching a course(s), beyond their 40-hour week in either their home department or in another department at the University that are not functionally related to the requirements of their regular positions and shall be paid at the rate determined by the Director of Compensation, in consultation with the department administrator in the department where the service(s) is performed. Such assignment(s) requires that the home department be informed and approve of the additional assignment(s). Such approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. Any grievance regarding the withholding of such approval shall be commenced at Step 2.

Section 11. Librarians.

A. There are four (4) job ranks for University Library Librarians and Law Librarians: Assistant Librarian (salary grade 6), Senior Assistant Librarian (salary grade 6), Associate Librarian (salary grade 7), and Librarian (salary grade 8). These ranks are described in Appendix J, Procedure and Qualifications for Appointment and Promotion of Bargaining Unit Librarians in Rank.

B. Librarians shall be assigned a salary grade based upon their librarian rank as described in Section 11.A., above, and Appendix J, Procedure and Qualifications for Appointment and Promotion of Bargaining Unit Librarians in Rank. The University will continue to fund librarian promotions from “central” funds. The base salary of librarians receiving a promotion in librarian rank will be augmented by amounts equivalent to the promotion amounts for faculty contained in the 2003-2006 AAUP Collective Bargaining Agreement or its successor, according to the following schedule, after the addition of any other negotiated base salary increases:

1. Assistant Librarian (salary grade 6) to Sr. Assistant Librarian (salary grade 6):
Same amount as faculty promoted to Assistant Professor

2. Sr. Assistant Librarian (salary grade 6) to Associate Librarian (salary grade 7):
Same amount as faculty promoted to Associate Professor

3. Associate Librarian (salary grade 7) to Librarian (salary grade 8):
Same amount as faculty promoted to Professor

C. In October of any year, Assistant Librarians, Senior Assistant Librarians, and Associate Librarians may apply for promotion to the next higher rank in accordance with the procedures outlined in Appendix J. Librarians are also eligible to apply for promotions, reclassifications and in-grade promotions in accordance with Article XIV of this Agreement.

D. Librarian Rank and Salary Grade: Librarians at the librarian rank of Assistant Librarian and Senior Assistant Librarian are placed at Salary Grade 6; librarians at the librarian rank of Associate Librarian are placed at Salary Grade 7; librarians at the librarian rank of Librarian are placed at Salary Grade 8. As a result of a reclassification, the salary grade of a librarian may be higher than the grade of the corresponding librarian rank. When a librarian at a salary grade higher than the grade of the corresponding librarian rank receives a promotion to the next librarian rank, the librarian receives the monetary award specified in Article XVI, Section 11.B., above, but retains the current salary grade.

Section 13. The University shall notify employees of all applicable changes in wages, including retroactive pay, by year.

ARTICLE XVII

Effective July 1, 2007, the University shall implement the medical, dental and vision plan changes contained in Appendix K entitled, “Cleveland State University Unity Council Final Benefits Proposal (Years 2 & 3) March 21, 2007”.

Beginning July 1, 2007, part-time employees who regularly work at least thirty (30) but less than forty (40) hours per week (75% to 99% full-time equivalency) with an appointment of six (6) months or longer may enroll in the University’s group health, life and disability insurance plans, as set forth in Article XVIII.

Section 2. For the term of this Agreement, full-time employees will pay 20% of the total premium cost of the Medical Mutual Traditional Plan for single and family coverage; 10% of the total premium cost of the Medical Mutual Value Plan for single and family coverage; and 5% of the total premium cost of the Kaiser Permanente HMO Plan for single and family coverage.

Section 3.

A. The University shall maintain the University-wide Health Care Committee for the purposes as outlined in the Collective Bargaining Agreement between the University and the AAUP. The Health Care Committee should conclude its research and provide recommendations on or before February 1st of each year to allow adequate time for any proposed changes in health insurance benefits to be implemented the following July 1st. Union participation in the Health Care Committee shall not be construed to be a waiver of the Union's right to negotiate with respect to changes, if any, in health insurance benefits as provided for in this Agreement.

B. Should the Health Care Committee determine to recommend modification, deletion or replacement of any of the University's health insurance benefits, such recommendations will be subject to joint negotiations between the Unions representing University employees (the SEIU, the AAUP, the CWA and the FOP, "the Unions") and the University. Any tentative agreements reached between the parties will be subject to approval by the Union.

C. In the event that the University desires to make changes in health insurance benefits in effect as of July 1, 2007, as recommended by the Health Care Committee, it shall notify the Union in writing no less than 120 days prior to the effective date of the proposed changes. Within 30 days after receipt of written notice, the Unions may jointly notify the University of their desire to reopen negotiations on the subject of health insurance benefits. If the Unions decline to negotiate over the recommendations of the Health Care Committee, there will be no changes in the health insurance plans in effect at that time.

If the University and the Unions agree to negotiate, they shall bargain in good faith for a period of 30 days following receipt of a notice to reopen. At any time during this 30-day period, the parties may request by mutual agreement that the State Employment Relations Board (SERB) or the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS) appoint a mediator to assist the parties. Any tentative agreements reached between the University and the Unions will be subject to approval by the Unions. If the University and the Unions cannot reach tentative agreement, the negotiations will end and there will be no changes in the health plans in effect at that time.

D. District 1199 reserves the right to negotiate issues not covered in the joint agreement between the Unions as they apply to its Collective Bargaining Agreement and constituencies.

E. Cost increases should encourage efficient and reasonable use of health care and promote wellness (i.e., as in generic substitutes, mail-order prescriptions, and preventive care). The University will endeavor, within budgetary constraints, to educate the employees about these matters. The Health Care Committee may assist the University in the development, content and format of programs that address these issues.

F. The University shall pay the full premium cost of the dental benefits for full-time employees.

G. The University shall pay the full premium cost of the “Basic” vision plan for full-time employees. For the “Opt-Up” vision plan, full-time employees shall pay the difference between the premium cost of the “Opt-Up” plan and the “Basic” plan.

H. Cleveland State University will extend medical, dental, vision and employee assistance plan benefits equivalent to those provided to the spouses of employees to the registered same-sex domestic partners of bargaining unit employees who have filed an “Affidavit of Domestic Partnership” with the Department of Human Resources Development and Labor Relations.

Section 4. Full-time employees who elect to waive medical coverage shall receive an annual payment of $1,200.00 within thirty (30) calendar days of the end of the plan year. The employee must provide proof of coverage from another source. The election must be made in writing to the Director of Benefits during the annual open enrollment period. An employee who elects no medical insurance coverage subsequently may elect to participate in the insurance plan during that year, subject to the rules of the carrier, if the employee has had a change in status as defined by Section 125 of the Internal Revenue Code. Upon election to participate in coverage, the employee waives eligibility for the annual cash payment.

dependent children. All benefit provisions are subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Plan Certificates. The University shall offer benefit levels as described in Appendix J.

Section 6. Flexible Spending Accounts (FSA). The University will make available to employees Medical Flexible Spending and Dependent Daycare Assistance Accounts at the allowable per annum limit set by the plan document pursuant to Internal Revenue Code Section 125, which allow employees to set aside funds on a pre-tax basis to pay eligible unreimbursed medical and dependent care expenses during the plan year.

After a 90-day waiting period, the plan pays up to 60% of an employee's base salary, up to a maximum of $5,000 per month, if the employee is unable to work due to injury or illness. These benefits are reduced by any amount received from PERS, STRS and Social Security. The plan also provides deposits to a retirement annuity. All benefit provisions are subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Plan Certificate.

Section 8. Employee Assistance Plan. The University shall continue to provide an employee assistance plan fully paid by the University and shall make it available to all employees and their household members.

Section 1. Sick Leave. Sick leave with pay is a benefit available during absence due to personal illness; injury; medical confinement or disability; medical, dental or optical examinations; for the illness of or medical attention for a member of the immediate family; to cover a period of quarantine required by exposure to a contagious disease; to cover absences for unanticipated personal emergencies; or for the death of a member of the immediate family of the employee. For purposes of this Article, immediate family includes mother, father, brother, sister, spouse, daughter, son, mother-in-law, father-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, daughter-in-law, son-in-law, grandparent, grandchild, stepparents, step children, legal guardian, or other person who stands in place of a parent.

A. Accrual. Sick leave will accumulate at the rate of 1.25 days (ten hours) for each month of service, without limit, and including periods of vacation and sick and other paid leave. Sick leave accumulation is pro-rated for nine and ten month academic year appointments. Employees on less than full-time status shall receive sick leave credits proportionate to the percent of time or hours worked as compared to full-time employees.

B. Notification and Certification. For planned absences, consistent with Section 1 of this Article, the employee must notify the appropriate supervisor and gain prior approval. For unanticipated absences consistent with Section 1 of this Article, sick leave with pay shall be granted, provided the employee has reported the absence to the office of the department chairperson or supervisor prior to the beginning of duty, or as soon as practicable, except in case of an emergency. Employees failing to comply with sick leave notification procedures or who abuse sick leave shall be subject to discipline.

The University reserves the right to require medical certification, or in the case of a non-medical unanticipated emergency, other appropriate documentation, in cases of planned or unanticipated absence and prolonged or repeated absence. The University ordinarily will not require such a certificate or other documentation in the case of absence of less than three (3) days' duration. The University may also require medical certification as evidence of the employee's fitness to return to work.

C. Transfers/Other Public Service. If an employee transfers from one department of the University to another, from the University to another Ohio Public Agency, or from another State of Ohio Agency to Cleveland State University, accumulated sick leave credits will transfer insofar as allowed by law. Proof of sick leave credits must be furnished to the University in writing by the former employer of the employee transferring credits from another State of Ohio employer.

D. Coordination with Holidays. When a holiday occurs during a period of paid sick leave, the employee receives regular holiday pay; the time is not charged to sick leave.

E. Exhaustion of Sick Leave Balance. If an absence is due to sickness and extends beyond accumulated sick leave, the employee may request vacation, with the supervisor's approval. An employee may also be eligible for the Sick Leave Bank in accordance with Section 2, below. Leave without compensation may be requested in accordance with Article XXIII (Unpaid Leaves).

F. Disability. If the disability due to sickness extends beyond three (3) months, eligible employees may apply for disability benefits.

G. Sick Leave Prior to Agreement. All unused sick leave accumulated prior to the effective date of this Agreement shall be available for use by the employee.

H. Balance Tracking. The University will continue to provide a statement of accumulated sick leave.

I. Recordkeeping. The University shall be responsible for establishing and maintaining procedures for recording the use of sick leave.

Section 2. Sick Leave Bank (SLB). A sick leave bank (SLB) shall be provided for employees. The purpose of the SLB is to provide additional sick leave to members of the SLB who have exhausted accumulated sick leave and otherwise qualify for it. The Administration shall maintain the SLB for employees who elect to join.

A. A full-time employee who elects to join the SLB must have accumulated at least eighty (80.0) hours of sick leave. A part-time employee must have accumulated an amount proportionate to the percent of time or hours worked in a two-week period as compared to a full-time employee. A full-time employee joins the SLB by directing, in writing, the contribution of ten (10.0) hours of the member's accumulated sick leave into the SLB. A part-time employee joins the SLB by directing, in writing, the contribution of an amount proportionate to the percent of time or hours worked as compared to a full-time employee. Membership in the SLB continues until the employee leaves the university or until there is a call for SLB donations and the employee does not properly respond to the call. Sick leave time donated to the SLB is not refundable.

B. All employees shall be notified by HRD at the annual enrollment period each September of the existence of the SLB and shall be provided the opportunity to become members after becoming qualified for membership, as described in Section 2.A, above.

C. Qualified employees may enroll into the Sick Leave Bank during September of any calendar year.

D. When the time available in the SLB becomes less than five (5) hours times the number of SLB members, a donation of an additional five (5.0) hours of sick leave shall be called for from all SLB members who have at least eighty (80.0) hours of accumulated sick leave (prorated for part-time employees). SLB members who have fewer than eighty (80.0) hours of accumulated sick leave (prorated for part-time employees) shall be exempt from this call for donations. A member who has at least eighty (80.0) hours of accumulated sick leave (prorated for part-time employees) and who does not make a called-for donation shall cease membership in the SLB.

E. Any member who has fewer than eighty (80.0) hours of accumulated sick leave (prorated for part-time employees) and who anticipates the need for more sick leave than he/she has available may submit a request to the SLB committee for the transfer of sick leave time from the SLB to the member. The request shall be reviewed by the SLB committee and the committee's decision, by majority vote, shall be binding. Decisions by the SLB committee may not be grieved.

F. The SLB committee shall consist of three (3) representatives appointed by the Union and one representative each from the Office of the Provost and Senior Vice President and the Department of Human Resources Development and Labor Relations.

G. The maximum length of time available to any member from the SLB in response to an application is one hundred and sixty (160) hours (prorated for part-time employees). Additional extensions may be made if the sick leave time transferred in response to an application proves to be insufficient up to a total of three hundred and twenty (320) hours (prorated for part-time employees) in a twelve (12) month period. At no time may the SLB committee transfer more sick leave time from the SLB than is available in the bank.

H. Time from the SLB may be granted because of absence due to non-chronic conditions, catastrophic accident or illness, and primary caretaking for a member of the immediate family. Conditions caused by incidents covered by workers' compensation are not eligible for SLB time.

I. Employees applying for time from the SLB must also apply for disability benefits, if eligible.

Section 3. Annual Military Reserve Duty. Employees who participate in military reserve programs are entitled to leaves of absence without loss of pay for a period or periods not to exceed thirty-one (31) days per calendar year.

Section 4. Judicial Leave. Leave with pay is granted when an employee is called for jury duty or is subpoenaed to testify as a witness before any court or governmental hearing body. Service as an expert witness shall be considered to be in the same category as outside employment and shall be subject to the limitations specified in Article XXXIV (Consulting and Extramural Employment).

ARTICLE XXIII

UNPAID LEAVES

Section 1. Special Leave. Employees may apply for and may be granted a leave of absence without pay for such reasons as study, research, professional employment, vacation, or other personal or professional reasons not specifically covered by the Agreement. The employee shall continue to accrue seniority while on a special leave of absence.

Section 2.

A. Medical Leave. An employee who is injured, physically incapacitated, or unable to work for other reasons of a medical nature may apply for and shall be granted an unpaid medical leave of absence. The duration of such leave shall be a maximum of six (6) months after an employee has exhausted all her/his accumulated paid sick leave. Any FMLA leave that an employee is granted shall run concurrently with a medical leave of absence. Additional medical leave may be granted at the discretion of the University. The University may require proof of illness or injury. The employee shall continue to accrue seniority while on medical leave.

B. Disability Leave. An employee who has exhausted her/his accumulated sick leave, may, if physically incapacitated for the duties of her/his position, request a disability leave for a period not exceeding three (3) years, provided the employee meets the medical standards for disability as defined by PERS, STRS and/or Social Security. The University may require medical verification of the disability. The employee shall continue to accrue seniority while on disability leave.

C. Physician Examination. When requested, the employee must submit a satisfactory physician's statement prior to being granted a medical or disability leave, except in cases of emergency. The University may also require medical certification as evidence of fitness to return to work. The University reserves the right to require a second opinion by a doctor of the University's choice who has expertise in diagnosis of and treatment of the employee's disability as to the necessity of the requested leave of absence. The second opinion shall be at the University's expense. If there is a conflict between the doctors' opinions, the selected doctors shall appoint a third doctor acceptable to both whose opinion as to the need for a leave shall control. The expenses of the third doctor shall be borne equally by the employee and the University.

In addition to FMLA leave, where applicable, employees may apply for and may be granted an unpaid parental leave of absence for childbirth or adoption; or a serious illness or long-term personal emergency of the employee's child; or for the serious illness of an immediate family member as defined in Article XXII (Paid Leaves). Leave of absence requests for illness in the immediate family are subject to medical verification.

Section 3. Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA). The University shall meet and comply with the requirements of the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993 ("FMLA") and regulations issued pertaining thereto. The University retains the right to implement regulations and/or technical corrections as necessary.

A. Nothing in this collective bargaining agreement shall be construed as limiting an employee's eligibility for or entitlement to leave pursuant to the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993. Nothing in the FMLA and regulations issued pertaining thereto shall reduce or eliminate the benefits provided by the terms of this Agreement.

B. Definitions.

Eligible Employee: Employees who have been employed at the University for at least twelve (12) months, and who have worked for at least 1,250 hours in the previous twelve (12) months.

Leave must be taken within twelve (12) months of the event. Leave may be taken intermittently or on a reduced schedule with the permission of the University.

Family Medical Leave: Leave of absence necessitated by care of the Eligible Employee's spouse, son, daughter, or parent with a serious health condition. Leave may be taken intermittently or on a reduced schedule only if the schedule is needed for medical reasons. Leave may be taken intermittently or on a reduced schedule only if the schedule is needed for medical reasons. A health care provider's statement is required and must contain certification of the employee's condition, the necessity of the intermittent or reduced schedule, that the Eligible Employee is unable to perform the functions of his or her job, and an estimate of the amount of Leave time needed.

Parent: The biological parent of an employee or an individual who stood in place of a parent to an employee when the employee was a son or daughter.

C. An Eligible Employee is entitled to:

1. Twelve (12) weeks of Leave in a 12-month period under certain circumstances. Except to the extent that accrued sick time and vacation time must be used as described herein or the employee elects to use compensatory time, the Leave is unpaid. During unpaid Leave, the University will not contribute to retirement plans. While full-time Eligible Employees are entitled to twelve (12) workweeks of Leave (60 working days), part-time Eligible Employees are entitled to a prorated number of days equal to their part-time schedule, e.g., an Eligible Employee who works three (3) days/week is entitled to thirty-six (36) Leave days. Unused Leave cannot be carried over from year to year.

The 12-month period of FMLA Leave is considered a “rolling year” in which the effective date of the Leave triggers the beginning of the 12-month period. For instance, if an Eligible Employee takes twelve (12) weeks of Leave beginning on March 1, more Leave would be available beginning the following March 1.

2. Take the Leave all at once or, if medically necessary, intermittently or on a reduced schedule. Leaves described below in Sections C.3.a and C.3.b shall not be taken by an Eligible Employee intermittently or on a reduced Leave schedule without the written consent of the Department Head or Dean, the Department of Human Resources Development and Labor Relations, and the appropriate Vice President or Provost.

3. Leave due to the following:

a. Birth of a son or daughter of the Eligible Employee and to care for the son or daughter (Parental/Child Care Leave). Leave must be taken within twelve (12) months of the birth. Medical documentation is required.

An Eligible Employee is required to use all accrued vacation time for all or any part of the 12-week period of such Leave. Accrued sick time may not be used.

For Leave due to the Medical condition of the mother, see Section C.3.d below (Medical Leave).

b. Placement of a son or daughter with an Eligible Employee for adoption or foster care (Child Care Leave). Leave must be taken within twelve (12) months of the placement. Legal documentation is required.

An Eligible Employee is required to use accrued vacation time for all or any part of the 12-week period of such Leave. Accrued sick time may not be used.

c. Care of an Eligible Employee's spouse, son, daughter, or parent with a serious health condition (Family Medical Leave). Leave may be taken intermittently or on a reduced schedule only if the schedule is needed for medical reasons.

A health care provider's statement is required and must contain certification of the employee's or the family member's condition, the necessity of the intermittent or reduced schedule (if applicable), that the Eligible Employee is needed to care for the family member, and an estimate of the amount of Leave time needed. If the University doubts the validity of the certification, it may require, at its own expense, the opinion of a second health care provider designated or approved by the University.

An Eligible Employee is required to use all accrued sick time and accrued vacation time for all or any part of the 12-week period of such Leave.

d. A serious health condition that makes the Eligible Employee unable to perform the functions of the position (Medical Leave). Leave may be taken intermittently or on a reduced schedule only if the schedule is needed for medical reasons.

A health care provider's statement is required and must contain certification of the Eligible Employee's condition, the necessity of the intermittent or reduced schedule (if applicable), the inability of the Eligible Employee to perform the functions of his or her job, and an estimate of the amount of Leave time needed. If the University doubts the validity of the certification, it may require, at its own expense, the opinion of a second health care provider designated or approved by the University.

An Eligible Employee is required to use all accrued sick time and accrued vacation time for all or any part of the 12-week period of such Leave.

D. Resolution of Conflicting Opinions. In any case in which the second opinion described in Sections C.3.c and C.3.d above differs from the original medical certification provided by the Eligible Employee, the University may require, at its own expense, that the Eligible Employee obtain a third medical opinion from a health care provider approved by both the Eligible Employee and the University. That third opinion shall be final and binding on both the Eligible Employee and the University.

E. Foreseeable Leave with Timely Notice. Eligible Employees generally must give at least thirty (30) days notice of intention to take Leave when the precipitating event is foreseeable such as a birth, adoption, or planned medical treatment.

Eligible Employees are required to make a reasonable effort to schedule a foreseeable Leave so as not to disrupt unduly the operations of the University.

F. Foreseeable Intermittent Leave or Leave on a Reduced Schedule. If an Eligible Employee requests an Intermittent Leave or a Leave on a reduced schedule under Sections C.3.c and C.3.d above, the University may require the Eligible Employee to transfer temporarily to an available alternative position with equivalent pay and benefits that better accommodates recurring periods of Leave.

G. Leave for Husbands and Wives Who Are Both Eligible Employees. Spouses who are both employed by Cleveland State University are eligible for a combined total of twelve (12) workweeks of Leave (for birth, placement, or to care for a single sick parent) which they can split between them. However, each spouse is entitled to twelve (12) full workweeks of Leave for his or her own illness or to care for a sick child or spouse.

H. Maintenance of Health Benefits. The University will continue coverage under the Eligible Employee's group health plan(s) (medical, dental, vision, medical reimbursement account) for the duration of the twelve (12) workweeks at the level and under the conditions coverage would have been provided if the Eligible Employee had continued in employment continuously during the Leave.

I. Payment for Health Benefits. The Eligible Employee must continue to pay the employee's share of the premium payments. If an Eligible Employee fails to remit his or her share of the premium payments during the Leave period, coverage will be terminated.

See Section K below for an Eligible Employee's responsibility for payment of the entire premium for failure to return from Leave.

J. Extending Approved Leave Beyond Twelve (12) Week Leave. Those Eligible Employees whose conditions or obligations persist beyond the 12-week Leave period may apply for leaves of absence according to this Article XXIII (Unpaid Leaves). The twelve (12) workweek FMLA Leave will be counted toward any total Extended Leave which is approved.

K. Return From Leave.

1. An Eligible Employee who takes Leave shall be entitled upon return from such Leave:

a. to be restored to the same position of employment held by the Eligible Employee when the Leave commenced; or

b. to be restored to an equivalent position with equivalent benefits, pay, and other terms and conditions of employment.

If a substitute professional staff instructor(s) needs to be hired to cover an Eligible Employee's Leave, it will be within the University's discretion to not return the Eligible Employee to teach course(s) during an academic semester. Such Eligible Employee shall perform other duties as assigned in the interim.

If a layoff occurs during the period of Leave, an Eligible Employee on Leave shall receive the same rights, upon return to work, as other employees under this Agreement.

2. Eligible Employees will not be entitled to accrual of any employment benefits during the period of unpaid Leave.

3. If the Eligible Employee fails to return from Leave for reasons other than the continuation, recurrence, or onset of the serious health condition that gave rise to the leave or for circumstances beyond the Eligible Employee's control, the University may recover from the Eligible Employee the premiums paid by the University for continuously maintaining group health coverage.

4. The University may require certification from a health care provider that an Eligible Employee on a Medical Leave is able to return to work from such Medical Leave.

L. All terms which are not defined in this Section 3 (Family and Medical Leave Act) shall have the same meaning as those terms are defined in the Family and Medical Leave Act.

Section 4. Military Service Leave. The provisions of State and Federal Law shall prevail for all aspects of military leave, including request for and return from such leave.

Section 5. Candidacy for Public Office. An employee may run for or accept public office under the following conditions:

A. The employee shall in all cases submit a full statement of any proposed campaign activities and of the responsibilities of the office which may be assumed to the Vice President for Business Affairs and Finance or designee.

B. When, in the judgment of the University, those activities and responsibilities will conflict with the professional obligations of the employee, a written application for reduced levels of employment and compensation or for special leave without pay shall be submitted to the Vice President for Business Affairs and Finance or designee at least ninety (90) days before the assumption of said activities or responsibilities.

Section 6. Union Leave.

A. With the permission of the University, a leave of absence without pay and without loss of seniority or benefits will be granted where possible to those employees who are elected or selected by the Union to conduct Union business. Such permission will not be unreasonably withheld; however, the employee and/or the Union shall make the request at least forty-eight hours (48) prior to the date the leave is to commence. Every effort will be made by the Union to give as much advance notice as possible. It is understood that a maximum of ten (10) employees will be granted such leaves per year. Annually, up to ten (10) employees may be granted such a leave, and cumulatively such leaves shall not exceed thirty (30) working days per year; no such leave shall exceed five (5) consecutive work days. These leaves shall not interfere with the necessary operations of the University. Moreover, it is agreed that approved leaves taken by the Local Union President and up to two (2) District 1199 Executive Board members under this provision shall not be limited to five (5) consecutive work days and shall not be considered for purposes of calculating the thirty (30) day limitation.

B. With the permission of the University, an employee with at least one (1) year of service who accepts full-time assignment with the Union by election, appointment, or hire shall be granted a leave of absence without pay and not to exceed one (1) year for said assignment without loss of seniority. Upon application in writing, said leave may be extended for an equal period of time. Such permission will not be unreasonably withheld. The employee and/or the Union shall make the request for the initial leave period at least thirty (30) calendar days prior to the date the leave is to commence. Every effort will be made by the Union to give as much advance notice as possible. No more than one (1) employee from the same department may be on such leave at any one (1) time.

Section 7. General Provisions for Unpaid Leaves.

A. All leaves without pay are granted at the discretion of the Vice President for Business Affairs and Finance or designee. Applications for such leaves must be submitted to and approved by the employee's supervisor, unit head, and Vice President or Provost prior to being submitted to the Department of Human Resources Development and Labor Relations. Except as otherwise specified in this Article, requests for non-emergency leave should be submitted at least one (1) month prior to the beginning of the leave date.

B. An unpaid leave of absence is not considered a break in seniority, and additional seniority shall continue to accrue. During an approved unpaid leave of absence, the employee will not accumulate vacation leave, sick leave, or holiday time. An employee may request an extension of any unpaid leave of absence in writing to her/his appropriate administrator.

C. The employee shall notify the University of her/his expected date of return from an unpaid leave of absence without pay. Upon completion of such leave, the employee is to be returned to the position formerly occupied, or to an equivalent position if the employee's former position no longer exists, at the same rate of pay including any increases that would have accrued if the employee had been on the job. If a layoff occurs during the period of leave, the employee on leave shall receive the same rights upon return to work as other employees under this Agreement.

D. The University will continue to pay its share of all group insurance benefits consistent with the procedure set forth in this Agreement during an unpaid leave of absence such that said group coverages are continued through the end of the calendar month in which the employee last actually worked or was on paid leave status, whichever is later. Beginning with the first day of the calendar month immediately following the month in which the employee last actually worked or was on paid leave status, whichever is later, the employee shall be responsible for paying for insurance benefits consistent with the provisions of COBRA for such period of time as the employee is eligible for COBRA coverage.

E. The University shall continue Basic Life Insurance coverage for an employee who becomes disabled according to the provisions of PERS, STRS, or Social Security for a period not to exceed three (3) years.

ARTICLE XXIV

EMERGENCY CLOSING

Section 1. When an emergency is declared by the President of the University or designee, pursuant to the University's emergency closing policy, employees in the affected part(s) of the University who are scheduled to work will receive their regular compensation for any straight-time hours they are not permitted to work due to such closing.

Section 2. Employees in the affected part(s) of the University who are required to work when other employees are excused due to the declared emergency shall be compensated at straight time for all hours worked. In addition, such employees shall receive their regular compensation for the hours they are scheduled to work, not to exceed eight (8) hours.

ARTICLE XXV

SENIORITY

Section 1. Seniority for a full-time employee (including academic year employees) or part-time employee shall be that employee's uninterrupted length of continuous service from the original date of hire with the University. Following ratification of this Agreement, seniority for a part-time employee shall be prorated in accordance with full-time equivalency. Temporary employees in their current positions who become members of the bargaining unit after one year in those positions, in accordance with Article II (Recognition), shall be credited with seniority from the date of hire in the temporary positions.

Section 2. Seniority shall be broken when an employee:

- A. Quits or resigns;
- B. Is discharged for just cause;
- C. Is laid off more than eighteen (18) months;
- D. Is absent without notice for three (3) consecutive work days unless failure to give notice is beyond the reasonable control of the employee;
- E. Fails to report for work when recalled from layoff within five (5) work days from the date on which the University delivers the employee notice via certified mail (to such employee's last known address as shown on the University's records) unless an employee requests within this five (5) day period additional time, up to ten (10) work days, to report. Employees are responsible for notifying the University of any change in their addresses.

Section 3. Seniority will continue to accrue during time spent on an approved leave of absence or on a layoff/recall list.

Section 4. An employee who resigns and is rehired not more than one year following the date of resignation shall retain seniority accrued prior to resignation but shall not accrue seniority between resignation and rehire.

Section 5. Among those with the same length of continuous service, seniority shall be based on the date of hire. If the date of hire is the same, the flip of a coin shall be used to determine seniority.

Section 6. Following ratification of this Agreement, time spent in non-bargaining unit supervisory/administrator positions shall not be credited for seniority purposes. Any employee who leaves the bargaining unit for such a position and who subsequently returns to a bargaining unit position shall have his or her previous bargaining unit seniority reinstated.

Section 7. The President, Vice President, Secretary, and the Chief Steward/Grievance Chair of the Union shall be deemed the most senior employees in the bargaining unit during their terms of office.

ARTICLE XXVI

POSITION CHANGES AND POSTING

Section 1. Subject to the provisions of Article XXVII, when a bargaining unit position vacancy occurs or a new bargaining unit position is created and the University decides to fill that position, the University shall post a notice of the opening. The notice shall be posted for a minimum of ten (10) working days on the Department of Human Resources Development and Labor Relations' (HRD) website located at url: <http://www.csuohio.edu/HRD/employment.html> and as a regular reminder in the "Campus Mailbag".

Section 2. The University shall send an email copy of the posting to the Union President. All website postings will be dated. The website posting shall specify the position's title, the department or work unit where the position is assigned, the pay grade assigned, the salary range, the minimum and preferred qualifications for the position, the hours of work (full-time or part-time) the source of funding, designation as an SEIU position, and a brief description of the job duties. Employees may obtain a position description by calling HRD.

Section 3. All application material timely filed will be reviewed by the University.

Section 4. Bargaining unit position vacancies and new positions shall be awarded on the basis of qualifications. “Qualified” shall be defined as meeting all the necessary qualifications for the position to perform the required work. In determining whether an applicant is qualified, the University shall give consideration to ability, aptitude, skill, experience, qualifications as stated on the position vacancy notice, and such other criteria as it usually considers in filling any vacancy. The determination of qualifications is the responsibility of the University.

Insofar as it is consistent with the process described in the University's Affirmative Action Policy, the following procedure shall be adhered to.

A. When a bargaining unit vacancy occurs or a new bargaining unit position is created, the affected department shall adhere to Search Committee guidelines as established in the University's Affirmative Action Policy. The make-up of the Search Committees is subject to approval by either the Affirmative Action Office or HRD.

B. Bargaining unit employees shall be represented on Search Committees. Employees shall inform the department head of their interest in serving on a Search Committee. At least one (1) bargaining unit employee who is knowledgeable regarding the duties and responsibilities of the vacant position (“eligible bargaining unit employee”) shall be appointed to the Search Committee. It is the intent of the parties that reasonable efforts be made not to appoint the same eligible bargaining unit member to successive Search Committees.

C. Subject to paragraph (D), below, the Search Committee shall receive and review all application materials that are submitted timely. The Search Committee, in consultation with either the Affirmative Action Office or HRD, shall reach agreement on which candidates to interview and to recommend for final selection. The Search Committee's Chair shall assume responsibility for all reports and documentation. The Chair of the Search Committee shall forward the Committee's recommendation(s) to the appropriate administrator.

D. The University reserves the right to utilize HRD Planning Managers, Generalists and other appropriate HRD professionals who may assume initial screening, interviewing, ranking and oversight responsibilities of a Department Search Committee for a specified college, division, or department. In such instances involving a bargaining unit vacancy, at least one (1) eligible bargaining unit employee as described in Section 4.B, above, and who is knowledgeable regarding the duties and responsibilities of the vacant position shall be part of the search process. Any such actions by HRD professionals shall meet University requirements as defined in the Affirmative Action Policy regarding the search process. The HRD professional and the eligible bargaining unit employee shall typically refer at least two (2) final candidates to the hiring department. HRD will notify the Union of any expansion of its current role as the search committee beyond the College of Urban Affairs and the Division of University Studies.

E. If an employee applies for a posted position and is determined by the University search process to be the most qualified over an outside applicant(s) or relatively equal in qualifications to an outside applicant(s), the employee shall be awarded the position over the outside applicants. Further, if more than one employee applies for a posted position and if their qualifications are determined by the University to be relatively equal, then the employee with the most seniority shall be awarded the position. The University's determination as to relative qualifications shall be conclusive in the absence of a showing that such determinations were arbitrary or capricious.

F. The appropriate administrator shall assume responsibility for obtaining approvals from the Director of Compensation regarding an appropriate grade and salary.

G. The Search Committee Chair shall notify qualified bargaining unit applicants in writing that they have not been offered the position within thirty (30) calendar days of the date on which the candidate offered the position has verbally accepted the position. The start of the grievance timeline for an employee who wishes to file a grievance based on the selection of the candidate shall be ten (10) calendar days after the date on the letter informing the employee that he or she was not awarded the position. If a bargaining unit applicant is not sent a letter, the grievance timeline will commence when the applicant becomes aware that a candidate accepted a position, but no later than sixty (60) days after a candidate has accepted the position.

H. An employee who is not selected may meet with a designated member of the HRD to discuss the reasons for not being offered the position. At the request of the employee, a representative of the Union may be present at the meeting.

I. An employee awarded a position through the bidding and posting procedures shall be transferred to that position within twenty-one (21) calendar days of the date the employee is notified of the awarding of the position unless the department heads otherwise agree to a shorter period.

J. An employee awarded a position under these provisions shall be allowed a trial period of thirty (30) calendar days, beginning with the first day in the new position. If during the trial period it is determined that an employee is not satisfactorily performing the work, the employee shall be reassigned to her/his former position. In addition, an employee may elect to return to her/his former position within such trial period. An employee who is reassigned or elects to return to her/his former position will be paid at her/his former regular rate of pay plus any regular wage increases that would have been received by such employee in the former position, during the time the employee was in the new position.

Section 5. Employees who are within an original probationary period or trial period are ineligible for inclusion in a pool of candidates to fill a vacancy.

Section 6. Nothing in this article shall be construed to require the University to declare that a position vacancy exists; to create a position vacancy; or to create a new position.

ARTICLE XXVII

LAYOFF, BUMPING, RECALL

Section 1. Layoff. When the University determines that a reduction in force becomes necessary due to lack of funds, for purposes of efficiency, or lack of work in a department(s), the University shall:

A Determine which positions(s) shall be laid off and notify the Union and the affected employee(s) in accordance with the following:

1. Where possible, the University shall give written notice of a potential layoff to the affected employee(s) and the Union ninety (90) calendar days in advance of the effective date. The employee(s) and the Union shall be given written notice of an actual layoff no fewer than thirty (30) calendar days in advance of the effective date.

2. The written notice shall include the reasons for the layoff(s), the effective date of the layoff(s), and a reference to the employees' rights under this Article and Article VIII (Grievance Procedure).

3. Prior to the ninety (90) or thirty (30) calendar day notice, the University shall meet and confer with the Union to discuss alternatives to layoffs. The Union's comments and ideas given to avoid the layoff will be considered before making a final decision. Prior to this meeting, the University shall provide the Union with a current seniority list, the reason for the reduction in force and a copy of the departmental budget(s).

4. A copy of the seniority list indicating the names of all bargaining unit employees, classification, and grade will be posted on the Department of Human Resources Development and Labor Relations' bulletin boards across campus and a copy shall be sent to the Union.

B. The University shall maintain a layoff list and shall supply this list to the Union once a month, if applicable. The list shall contain employee names, dates of layoff, classifications, and dates of recall.

Section 2. Layoff Procedure.

A. Once the University determines the need for a layoff exists, it shall employ the following procedure:

1. If at anytime during the layoff process an employee submits his notice of retirement, resignation or volunteers for layoff, the University will review its layoff rationale. Where appropriate, the University may curtail staff reductions and/or recall laid-off employee(s). The University shall first lay off non-bargaining unit temporary employees with the same job classification and within the department(s) where the layoff(s) occurs. The University shall then lay off probationary employees with the same job classification and within the affected department(s).

2. If further reductions are required, employees in the affected job classification(s) shall be laid off in the inverse order of seniority, provided that the remaining employees are immediately qualified to perform the required work. For purposes of layoff, bumping, and recall, qualified shall include ability, aptitude, skill, experience, and qualifications as stated in the job description as evidenced by recent performance in the position or in a position having the same or similar essential job duties or the employee's demonstration of other relevant qualifications. Part-time employees shall be laid off before full-time employees, and part-time employees cannot bump full-time employees. Similarly, temporary employees cannot bump regular or funds available employees, regardless of seniority.

3. Student employees shall not be used to perform significant components of the position of a laid off employee.

4. The University shall make available to laid-off employees, prior to their layoff date, job and career advising and information on benefits. Upon request, the University shall provide reasonable access to personal computers, typewriters, and copiers for use in preparing resumes and cover letters. Employees shall also have access to EAP services during this time period to deal with any stress-related issues.

5. If the work force is to be reduced, it shall be accomplished by layoff and not by any hours reduction. Only by agreement between the appropriate parties can the regular hours of employees be reduced.

6. If a layoff occurs during a period of unpaid leave, the employee on leave shall receive the same rights under this Agreement upon return to work as other employees.

7. Any employee scheduled to be laid off from his/her present job may elect to be transferred into a posted vacant bargaining unit position for which the employee is immediately qualified to perform the required work.

8. Seniority will continue to accrue up to eighteen (18) months during time spent on layoff, and the employee shall retain all seniority accumulated prior to layoff.

Section 3. Bumping Procedure.

A. Full and part-time positions which are funded from state appropriations, general fees, tuition, or auxiliary funds are designated as "hard-funded" University positions. An employee scheduled to be laid off from his/her present job in a hard-funded position with six (6) or more years of seniority is eligible to bump. An employee scheduled to be laid off from his/her present job in a hard-funded position with less than six (6) years of seniority is ineligible to bump and shall be laid off.

B. Full and part-time positions which are dependent for funding from grants, contracts, and sales of educational services are designated as “funds available” positions. An employee scheduled to be laid off from his/her present job in a funds available position with eight (8) or more years of seniority is eligible to bump. An employee scheduled to be laid off from his/her present job in a funds available position with less than eight (8) years of seniority is ineligible to bump and shall be laid off.

C. An employee who bumps into a funds available position shall be limited to placement within a salary range permitted by the funding source(s).

D. Placement of an employee into a vacancy in the same classification or in a different classification in the same salary grade shall take precedence over bumping an incumbent in the same salary grade provided the employee is immediately qualified to perform the required work.

E. Employees may not bump those who have more seniority.

F. An affected employee who is eligible to bump may bump the least senior employee in a position for which the affected employee is immediately qualified to perform the required work as evidenced by recent performance in the position or in a position having the same or similar essential job duties or the employee’s demonstration of other relevant qualifications:

1. In the same classification in the same department.
2. In a different classification in the same salary grade in the same department.
3. In the same classification and same salary grade in a different department.
4. In a different classification in the same salary grade in a different department if the employee has worked in that classification at any time prior to the employee's assignment to his/her current position.

In the event that the employee's previous position(s) has experienced a title change since the employee held the position(s), the employee and at least one representative from the University and at least one representative from the Union shall review the employee's previous job history to determine the employee's previous position(s).

G. If the affected employee who is eligible to bump is not able to bump in the same salary grade, the employee shall be laid off, except under the following circumstances, when such employee may bump into a lower salary grade.

1. Subject to Sections 3.A. and 3.B. above, an employee may bump the least senior employee in a position within the next lower salary grade for which the affected employee is immediately qualified to perform the required work as evidenced by recent performance in the position or in a position the same or similar essential job duties or the employee's demonstration of other relevant qualifications:

- a. If the employee has fifteen (15) or more years of seniority; or
- b. If the employee is within five (5) years of eligibility for retirement according to PERS or STRS. An employee who is qualified for retirement according to PERS or STRS is not eligible to bump into a lower salary grade; or
- c. If the affected employee has worked in that classification at any time prior to the affected employee's assignment to his/her current position. In the event that that the employee's previous position(s) has experienced a title change since the employee held the position(s), the employee and at least one representative from the University and at least one representative from the Union shall review the employee's previous job history to determine the employee's previous position(s).

H. An employee who declines to transfer into a vacancy or to exercise his/her right to bump, or who is unable to do so, shall be laid off.

Section 4. Recall.

A. Laid-off employees or employees who have bumped will have recall rights for up to eighteen (18) months starting from the last day of work in the job classification held prior to the initial layoff, transfer, bump, or reduction in hours, provided they are immediately qualified to perform the required work.

B. Whenever, in the judgment of the University, it is necessary to increase the work force in a department following a layoff, employees will be recalled in order of seniority, i.e., the most senior employee will be recalled first, provided that the recalled employee is immediately qualified to perform the required work.

1. University-authorized new or vacant positions shall first be offered, in seniority order, to the most senior pre-layoff classification incumbent who, as a result of layoff, had exercised his/her seniority to bump laterally within a salary grade or into a position in a lower salary grade. Recall or reinstatement will continue in order of seniority.

2. Subject to the eligibility provisions in Section 2.A.2. above, if a vacancy occurs in a lower grade level, it is the employee's option to accept that position if the employee is immediately qualified. If the employee chooses to accept the lower level position, the employee will be removed from the recall list.

3. Employees may choose to remain on the recall list rather than accept recall to a non-comparable position (i.e., in terms of hours, grade, salary, and benefits). An employee who is offered a position in her/his former job classification and who refuses the offer shall not be entitled to further recall rights.

C. An employee has five (5) workdays from receipt by certified mail of a notice of recall to return to work. However, if an employee requests additional time during this five (5) day period, the employee will have up to ten (10) workdays to report.

D. Seniority will continue to accrue up to eighteen (18) months during time spent on layoff, and the employee shall retain all seniority accumulated prior to layoff.

E. The University shall not hire new employees in bargaining unit positions as long as there are still eligible employees on the recall list who are immediately qualified to perform the work in the affected job classification and are willing to be recalled to said classification.

F. An employee who is recalled to his/her classification shall be compensated at his/her former salary plus any additional increase provided during the layoff period. An employee who is recalled to his/her former salary grade shall be compensated at his/her former salary plus any additional increase provided during the layoff period. An employee recalled to a lower salary grade classification shall be paid at his/her former salary plus any additional increase provided during the layoff period, unless it is higher than the maximum of the lower salary grade range, in which event the maximum salary at the lower salary grade range will apply. If and when the provisions of this paragraph are implemented, the placement of an employee in a classification different from his or her previous classification will not establish a basis for any future salary inequity issues.

Section 5. The University will continue to pay its share of all group insurance benefits consistent with the procedure set forth in this Agreement during a layoff such that said group coverages are continued through the end of the calendar month in which the employee last actually worked, or was on paid leave status, whichever is later. Beginning with the first day of the calendar month immediately following the month in which the employee last actually worked or was on paid leave status, whichever is later, the employee shall be responsible for paying for insurance benefits consistent with the provisions of COBRA for such period of time the employee is eligible for COBRA coverage. An employee on layoff may convert her/his group basic life insurance benefit to an individual policy at her/his full cost according to the terms and conditions stipulated by the insurer in the Plan Certificate. A laid off employee may elect to “port”, or convert to an individual policy at her/his full cost, voluntary group life insurance coverage according to the terms and conditions specified by the insurer in the Plan Certificate.

ARTICLE XXVIII

TEMPORARY TRANSFERS

Section 1. The University retains the right, as modified by the terms set forth in this Article, to temporarily transfer employees. The Temporary Transfer Form is available on the Department of Human Resources Website under Professional Staff Forms.

Section 2. All temporary transfers from one job classification to another job classification shall not exceed forty-five (45) workdays except:

- A. To fill a need caused by an employee being on sick or other approved leave of absence;
- B. To provide vacation relief scheduling; or
- C. To fill a need during the period pending the permanent filling of such vacancy.

Section 3. If the University temporarily transfers an employee to another job classification, the employee shall:

A. Receive her/his regular salary if the salary grade for such other classification is the same as or lower than the employee's salary grade;

B. Receive the employee's regular salary during the first seven (7) calendar days of the transfer to a position in a higher salary grade. Beginning with the eighth (8th) calendar day, the employee shall be paid in the higher salary grade at the rate which results in not less than a 5% increase in base pay but not less than the minimum of the higher salary range, whichever is greater.

Section 4. A temporary transfer shall not exceed six (6) months without the agreement of the affected employee. At the request of the employee, a representative of the Union may be present at the meeting in which an extension is discussed.

Section 5. The University's right to transfer shall not extend to transferring an employee into a vacancy which would otherwise be filled by bidding or recall from layoff.

ARTICLE XXIX

SUBCONTRACTING/CONTRACTING OUT

Section 1. It is not the intent of the University to contract out or subcontract bargaining unit work for reasons other than to create greater efficiencies or to improve operational effectiveness as provided for in Article V, Management Rights. Prior to a decision being made to subcontract/contract out work, the Union shall be given, upon request, the opportunity to meet with the University and to discuss what options/alternatives may be available to maintain the work in the bargaining unit. The Union shall have a reasonable period of time, when possible, up to thirty (30) calendar days following the meeting, to provide alternatives to the University's intended action.

Section 2. When possible, the University shall give the Union a minimum of sixty (60) calendar days advance written notice of its intent to contract out work.

Section 3. In addition to the above, the Union shall have the right, upon request, to negotiate the impact of the intended actions of the University to subcontract/contract out bargaining unit work.

Section 4. In the event of a dispute, relating to the terms of this Article, the Union shall have the right to file a grievance pursuant to Article VIII.

ARTICLE XXX

Section 1. Workload of Professional Staff Who Do Not Teach.

A. The University reserves the right to determine work assignments for each position. The distribution of work assignments will be made based upon consideration of classification level, employee qualifications, and organizational needs.

B. If an employee believes that her/his workload is excessive, the employee shall meet with her/his supervisor to resolve the issue. At the request of the employee, a Union representative may be present at the meeting.

C. If the workload issue remains unresolved, the employee may take the issue to the Vice President for Business Affairs and Finance or designee. At the request of the employee, a Union representative may be present at the meeting.

Section 2. Workload of Professional Staff Who Teach.

C. Adjustments in a professional staff member's instructional assignment may be made by a chairperson to encourage the initiation of a special project, to acknowledge a continuing record of scholarly or creative achievement, or to discharge administrative functions.

D. Upon request of the professional staff member and approval of the chairperson, reduced instructional assignments for a maximum of one (1) year may also be made at no reduction in pay in order to encourage professional development.

Section 3. Additional Compensation. Employees may provide additional professional services that are offered or required by the University as described in Article XVI, Section 10, Additional Compensation.

Section 4. In cases of staff reduction which result in the assignment of substantial additional duties, the affected individuals and supervisors shall meet for the purpose of prioritizing the work and are encouraged to suspend or eliminate non-essential duties or processes.

ARTICLE XXXI

OFF-CAMPUS WORK ASSIGNMENTS

Section 1. A member of the bargaining unit may, in consultation with the appropriate administrator(s), be given an off-campus assignment as part of his/her regular workload.

Section 2. Employees shall be reimbursed for the use of their personal vehicles when the distance traveled to an alternative site of instruction and/or services is greater than their normal commute to the central campus. Reimbursement for mileage, parking fees, and tolls shall be made in accordance with standard University policies governing travel. If inclement weather or other hazardous conditions prevail, then the employee shall also be reimbursed for hotel and meal expenses in accordance with standard University travel policy.

Section 3. Any instruction and/or services offered off-campus for academic credit shall be approved through the same procedures required for approval of on-campus offerings. All expenses for copying (i.e., syllabi, examinations, or other course materials) off-campus work assignments shall be borne by the University.

ARTICLE XXXII

TEACHING AND PUBLISHING

Section 1. Employees, where applicable, are entitled to freedom in the classroom in discussing their subject, but they should be careful not to introduce into their teaching controversial matter which has no relation to their subject.

Section 2. Employees writing articles outside the scope of their job duties may identify themselves as employees of the University and may mention the University in such articles or publications, provided that the employees indicate that the articles or publications are written in their individual capacities and not as employees of the University, and further indicate that the University is not responsible for the contents of their articles or publications.

ARTICLE XXXIII

Section 1. The University recognizes the value, for its personnel, for the University, and for the community, of many types of consulting and other external employment experiences which enhance the professional competency of the individual and bring credit, not only to the employee, but to the University as well. Therefore, with appropriate approval, activities are permitted that may render valuable service to business, industry, professional groups, local, state, and federal governments.

Section 2. No employee shall be permitted to undertake any extramural employment during scheduled hours of employment without prior written approval.

Section 3. No employee shall use the name, symbol, or address of Cleveland State University in any extramural employment agreement. University staff, facilities, equipment, and materials may be used for such purposes only with the express written consent of the University and according to explicit terms for reimbursement.

ARTICLE XXXV

SUMMER SCHOOL/INTERSESSION

Section 1. Summer and Intersession Assignments. Summer and intersession teaching assignments shall be determined on the basis of the programmatic needs of departments and programs.

Within the scope of departmental or programmatic need, written procedures will be developed in each department or program so as to provide an equitable opportunity for full-time professional staff members who wish to teach summer or intersession assignments.

Section 2. Summer and Intersession Salary. For the 2006 summer session that begins in May 2006 and the 2006-2007 academic year intersession teaching assignments, a bargaining unit employee shall be compensated at the rate of $1,324 per semester credit hour. Each intersession and/or summer thereafter, this amount shall be increased by the same percentage as the increase in the base salary for the same year that the intersession and/or summer teaching assignment begins. ARTICLE XXXVI

TRAINING AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Section 1. The University will endeavor, within budgetary constraints, to provide opportunities that promote continuing education, training, and upgrading of employees. Training and Professional Development is a shared responsibility, and it is intended that these opportunities will enable employees to increase their knowledge and skill, enhance their promotional opportunities and advance their career goals.

Section 2. The Union may advise and consult with the Department of Human Resources Development and Labor Relations on the possible development, content, and format of career advancement programs, courses, and workshops that may be available to the employees. In the event the University introduces significant new equipment or technological change to an existing position or classification, the University shall provide appropriate training within the constraints of its budget for the incumbent(s) in order that they can properly use the equipment required by the specific position.

Section 3. In order to notify employees of staff development opportunities, appropriate job-related materials pertaining to staff professional development (i.e., announcements of conferences, research opportunities, etc.) will be available to each employee in the relevant job assignment area.

Section 4. Upon receiving supervisory approval, an employee who is required to hold a license, registration, or certification as a condition of employment shall be allowed to attend professional meetings or conferences in order to secure or maintain the necessary license, registration, or certification. The employee shall schedule attendance consistent with the operational needs of the department. The University shall pay the cost of any license, registration, or certification that an employee is to hold as a condition of employment at the University. The University shall also pay the membership costs for professional associations an employee is required to join in order for the University to maintain accreditation as deemed necessary by the University.

Section 5. The University recognizes the benefits of professional staff participation as presenters at professional meetings, as officers of professional organizations, participants in community service organizations, and as recipients of awards. Supervisors may permit attendance at meetings or conferences where such attendance does not interfere with unit operations. Supervisors may also provide financial support for these activities.

Section 6. The University agrees to continue to fund a bargaining unit career development program in the amount of up to $6,000 for each year of this Agreement. The program shall be overseen by a labor-management committee that will develop guidelines, monitor the program and approve appropriate requests. Any unused funds from the 2006 fiscal year appropriation and the subsequent years of this Agreement shall be carried forward to the next year of the Agreement.

ARTICLE XXXVII

TUITION REMISSION

Section 1. Eligibility. Full-time employees shall receive tuition remission benefits for courses taken at the University as described in this Article.

Section 2. Description. The University will cover instructional and general fees (this does not include miscellaneous fees such as those listed in the University Bulletins and other similar fees) for up to eight (8) semester hours of undergraduate or graduate courses per semester or fees for continuing education courses up to the equivalent cost of eight (8) undergraduate credit hours per semester. If the employee takes fewer than eight (8) credit hours per semester (graduate or undergraduate), the University will also cover continuing education fees up to the cost of the unused credit hours at the undergraduate rate. Any unused credits may not be "banked." Application and transcript fees are the responsibility of the employee. The University will not cover fees for employees to participate in the College of Business "AMBA" or "EMBA" programs.

Section 3. Application/Information. Employees who choose to participate in the Tuition Remission program must follow the University's application and enrollment procedures. Applications for the Tuition Remission program may be obtained from the Department of Human Resources Development and Labor Relations and tax information will be provided at that time.

Section 4. Release Time. An employee who wishes to attend a job-related course which is available only during working hours may be excused from work with the supervisor's approval. Job-related courses are those which, in the judgment of the employee's department head, will contribute significantly to the maintenance or improvement of the employee's job performance. Work schedules may be adjusted to permit employees to attend courses. Such adjustments shall not be unreasonably denied. In any event, employees may take no more than one course during the workday.

Section 5. Regular employees appointed at 50% FTE or more shall receive tuition remission benefits as described in Section 2 of this Article. In addition, employees may utilize this benefit in accordance with Section 4, above, and on a space-available basis.

ARTICLE XXXVIII

STUDENT FEE AUTHORIZATION PROGRAM

Section 1. Eligibility and Description. The student fee authorization program at Cleveland State University is an educational assistance program for spouses, registered same-sex domestic partners, and eligible naturally born or adopted children who are financially dependent on a qualifying full-time or part-time employee according to IRS rules. For eligible full-time employees, fee remission as described in this Article will be provided for full instructional and general fees charged for enrollment in credit courses by undergraduate students and for half of the total instructional and general fees charged for enrollment in credit courses by graduate and professional students. For eligible part-time employees, fee remission as described in this Article will be provided for 75% of the instructional and general fees charged for enrollment in credit courses by undergraduate students and for half of the total instructional and general fees charged for enrollment in the credit courses by graduate and professional students. Benefits apply only to the in-state portion of any fee. The Student Fee Authorization Program may not be used for Continuing Education Courses. For those who wish to enroll in “premium-priced” programs, the benefit shall not exceed the standard law, graduate or undergraduate tuition.

Section 2. Application/Information. Employees' spouses, registered same sex domestic partners and eligible dependents who choose to participate in the Student Fee Authorization Program must follow the University's application and enrollment procedures. Applications for the Student Fee Authorization Program may be obtained from the Department of Human Resources Development and Labor Relations and tax information will be provided at that time.

Section 3. Eligibility of Spouses, Registered Same Sex Domestic Partners and Children

For spouses, registered-same sex domestic partners or dependent children to be eligible for participation, a full-time employee must have at least two (2) years of continuous full-time service with the University since the most recent hire date (if more than one). A part-time employee must have at least two (2) years of continuous full-time or part-time service of at least 75% full-time equivalency (“FTE”) with the University since the most recent hire date (if more than one). In the event of a status change from part-time service of 75% FTE or more to full-time service, the employee maintains part-time benefit until two (2) years continuous full-time or part-time service has elapsed to become eligible for the full-time fee remission benefit. Eligibility is determined as of the first day of the session for the course(s) desired. The University will cover only the cost of fees for spouses, registered same-sex domestic partners and dependent children of employees who are eligible for the program on the first day of the session.

Eligible dependents include the spouse or registered same-sex domestic partner of a qualifying employee or children who are financially dependent on the qualifying employee. A financially dependent child is one who currently meets the Internal Revenue Service dependency definition and is being claimed on the qualified employee's federal income tax return for the current year. A registered same-sex domestic partner is a same-sex domestic partner who together with the employee has completed the University's Affidavit of Domestic Partnership and filed it with the Department of Human Resources Development and Labor Relations.

Eligible spouses, registered same-sex domestic partners and children receiving any form of financial aid through the University or other governmental agencies will receive fee remission under this policy only to the extent that no cash disbursement of this benefit results from multiple awards. Financial aid regulations governing the Fee Authorization Program are available in the Financial Aid Office.

Section 4. Benefit. An eligible spouse, registered same-sex domestic partner or child may participate in the program for a total of 144 semester credit hours or two (2) academic degrees, whichever is less.

In the event of the divorce of a qualifying employee, eligibility is continued for the spouse for a period of up to two (2) years, as long as the qualifying employee remains in an eligible, active status at Cleveland State University. Benefits will be determined based on the employee's current status in an active full-time or 75% full-time equivalent position.

Section 5. Changes in Employment Status.

A. In the event of a qualifying employee's death, eligibility will be continued for a spouse, registered same-sex domestic partner and/or children regardless of their registration status at that time based on the employee's active status and eligibility at the time of death.

B. With ten (10) years of service, in the event of a qualifying employee's retirement or total disability (under PERS, STRS or Social Security), eligibility will be continued for a spouse, registered same-sex domestic partner and/or children regardless of their registration status at that time based on the employee's active status and eligibility at the time of retirement.

C. If an appointment is continued at less than full-time, or if a leave of absence without pay is granted, eligibility is continued for two (2) full semesters beyond the date of the change in status based on the employee's active status and eligibility at the time. If an appointment is terminated as a result of a reduction of the workforce, benefits are extended for a period of two (2) full semesters for those who have been attending Cleveland State University during the two (2) academic terms immediately preceding the layoff. In the event of any other termination of active service with the University, the Fee Authorization Program eligibility ceases.

D. An employee who is laid off and subsequently recalled within the recall period shall, upon recall, be immediately eligible for benefits under this Article and is not required to wait for two (2) years after recall to be eligible, provided he or she has otherwise satisfied the eligibility requirements at the time of layoff.

A laid off employee who did not satisfy the eligibility requirements for benefits at the time of layoff shall, upon recall, retain time accrued toward eligibility prior to the layoff and shall satisfy the remainder of the eligibility period prior to receiving benefits under this Article.

To achieve that purpose, the University may install security cameras. Security cameras may incidentally record employee misconduct that the University may use in disciplinary procedures.

CLEVELAND STATE UNIVERSITY

Department of Human Resources Development and Labor Relations

TITLE: Compensatory Time Policy for SEIU District 1199 Bargaining Unit Employees

PURPOSE: To establish guidelines for the accrual, use and tracking of compensatory time for employees covered by the SEIU District 1199 bargaining unit agreement.

EFFECTIVE DATE: April 26, 2000

POLICY: Any full-time SEIU District 1199 Bargaining Unit employee of Cleveland State University who is authorized to work in his or her position more than forty hours or more than five eight-hour work days in a normal work week is entitled to compensatory time at a rate of one hour for each hour of overtime worked, or to have his or her work schedule adjusted, or both, to compensate such employee for the additional hours or days worked. This policy shall also apply to any salaried part-time SEIU District 1199 Bargaining Unit employee who is assigned to work in his or her position additional hours beyond his or her normal schedule.

DEFINITION: Work week: Sunday through Saturday

GUIDELINES: If an employee finds it necessary to work in his or her position more than his or her normal work week schedule as explained in this policy on page one ("normal work week schedule"), the employee will inform his or her department head as soon as possible beforehand on the Compensatory Time Request Form (see Appendix B-1). When reporting compensatory time, the employee shall record the compensatory time earned or used. The department head will keep a record of the time accrued and expended on the Record of Compensatory Time Earned and Taken form (see Appendix B-2). A copy of the Record of Compensatory Time Earned and Taken form must be sent to the Department of Human Resources Development and Labor Relations ("HRD") for each pay period in which an employee earns or uses compensatory time. All original documents will remain within the originating department and be subject to review.

Normally, compensatory time must be pre-approved by an employee's supervisor. In those circumstances in which an accurate estimate of the compensatory time to be incurred cannot be predicted, the employee shall inform the supervisor as soon as he or she can determine the actual amount of compensatory time that was needed to perform the required work. Where there may be a dispute over the amount of compensatory time that is needed to complete a task or tasks, a next higher level supervisor shall decide such time. When possible, the proposed compensatory time shall not be unreasonably denied, and may even be increased upon the approval of the next higher level supervisor.

If an employee finds that he or she must unexpectedly work beyond his or her normal work week schedule and has not sought approval and/or is unable to locate a person authorized to grant approval, he or she will follow the same procedure as above, declaring post facto on the Compensatory Time Request Form the number of hours worked overtime. Disputes shall be resolved by the next higher level supervisor.

Where the appropriate department head authorizes an employee's work week to exceed the normal work week schedule, resulting in the accrual of compensatory time, employees and supervisors should, when feasible, make arrangements to have at least one other person stationed near the employee working overtime.

Employees may work from their homes on weekends or holidays, where possible, following the procedures above.

If a department head has reason to believe that the policy is being abused and has documented the abuse, then disciplinary action may be taken.

Compensatory Time vs. Vacation Leave:

Employees who have earned compensatory time should take such time off prior to using vacation leave. However, this does not apply when an employee's vacation balance is approaching his or her maximum annual vacation leave carry-over (240 hours). In this case, the employee would be allowed to use his or her vacation leave first in order to avoid being penalized by losing vacation leave.

Accrual and Usage:

- Compensatory time shall be accrued on an hour for hour basis in increments of .5 hours.
- Compensatory time may be accrued up to a maximum of 160 hours.
- No more than 40 hours of earned compensatory time may be accumulated in any pay period.
- All accrued and unused compensatory time must be used within the 12-month period following the week during which the overtime occurred or it will be forfeited.
- Compensatory time will not be prorated between departments in a joint staffing situation. The department that authorizes compensatory time will be solely responsible for the internal record keeping, the transmittal of information to HR, and the use of an employee's accrued time.

Promotion, Transfer, or Termination:

If an employee is promoted, transferred to another department, or changes from bargaining unit to non-bargaining unit status, the employee must be allowed to use all accrued compensatory time before leaving or, with agreement of the new department, must be allowed to use such time within one year of the accrual; otherwise it will be forfeited.

Upon separation (resignation, retirement, voluntary termination) the employee shall be allowed to use the unused balance of compensatory time or it will be forfeited.

USAGE PROCEDURES:

1. The staff member must secure prior written approval from the supervisor before compensatory time can be used.
2. An employee must use compensatory time during his or her regularly scheduled workweek.
3. An employee who has accrued compensatory time and who has requested the use of such time shall be permitted by the employee's supervisor to use such time within a reasonable period after making the request, if the use of the compensatory time does not unduly disrupt the normal operations of the department.

RECORDKEEPING:

It is the responsibility of supervisors to familiarize themselves with the necessary reporting obligations to enable them to consistently administer this policy. Accurate record keeping and appropriate supporting documentation of overtime hours and compensatory time credited and taken is mandatory. Departmental administrators shall be responsible for assuring that compensatory time balances do not become excessive.

1. Departments must document compensatory time approved, accrued, and used, consistent with the other provisions of this policy. Each department shall:
 - a. Maintain internal records that indicate exactly when and how an employee worked in a given workweek.
 - b. Maintain appropriate supporting documentation for each grant of compensatory time off made to any employee.

2. Departments must complete (both the employee and the department head) a Compensatory Time Request Form. A copy is attached as Appendix B-1 to this policy statement. Copies are also available by calling HR at 687-3636.

Departments should submit the Record of Compensatory Time Earned and Taken Form (see Appendix B-2) to HR at the end of each pay period.

SEIU & CSU Side Letter of Agreement

RE: Implementation of the 8/23/04 Revisions to the Fair Labor Standards Act

In order for Cleveland State University to implement the U.S. Department of Labor's revisions to the "white collar" exemptions contained in the Fair Labor Standards Act ("FLSA") and to maintain its legal compliance with governing FLSA regulations, the following changes shall apply:

- 1) The results of the University's self-audit of SEIU District 1199 bargaining unit staff (copy attached) requiring the re-designation of certain bargaining unit staff to non-exempt status under the FLSA's overtime regulations shall take effect on August 23, 2004.
- 2) For those bargaining unit staff re-designated as overtime non-exempt, all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours in a work week shall be paid at the rate of one and one-half times the position's regular rate of pay or made available for use in the form of compensatory time accrued at the rate of one and one-half hours for each hour of overtime worked. The designation of overtime as time and one-half premium pay or compensatory time shall be determined at the sole discretion of management. The maximum accrual of compensatory time for non-exempt bargaining unit staff shall be increased to 240 hours (based upon a time and one-half accrual of 160 overtime hours actually worked) after which payment will be made for all hours worked. Other than the change in the calculation of overtime pay (from straight time to time and one-half), the increase in the compensatory time accrual (from a maximum of 160 to 240 hours) and the designation of such time by management, the provisions of Article XV (including Appendix B) of the current collective bargaining agreement between Cleveland State University and SEIU District 1199 shall continue to apply.
 - A). When possible, the University will attempt to equalize overtime opportunities among eligible employees in the same department and in the same job classification
 - B). Payment for accrued compensatory time upon termination of employment will be calculated on an employee's rate of compensation at the time of termination
- 3) For those bargaining unit staff re-designated as overtime non-exempt, it will be necessary to change their payroll distribution from a semi-monthly to bi-weekly schedule. The University will meet and confer with the Union in advance of such change for the purpose of identifying and discussing its impact, if any, on bargaining unit staff.

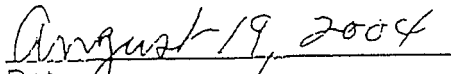

- 4) For those bargaining unit staff who retain their designation as overtime exempt, the provisions of Article XV (including Appendix B) of the current collective bargaining agreement between Cleveland State University and SEIU District 1199 shall continue to apply.

- 5) The intent of this Agreement is to comply with governing FLSA regulations effective August 23, 2004. The University shall not remove any classification, position title, or employee from the SEIU District 1199 bargaining unit based solely on the fact that such status has changed from exempt to non-exempt as a result of complying with such regulations.

CLEVELAND STATE UNIVERSITY
TELEWORK POLICY
FOR PROFESSIONAL AND CLASSIFIED STAFF

Effective Date: January 26, 2004

Purpose: This policy is established to promote efficiencies; to attract and retain a diverse and motivated workforce; and to distinguish Cleveland State University as an employer of choice in Northeast Ohio.

Policy: University departments may, with the approval of the appropriate Vice President or the Provost for areas for which he/she is responsible, permit designated employees to work at alternate work locations for all or part of the work week. This work arrangement is known as Teleworking, which is a flexible work arrangement in which a supervisor directs or permits an employee to perform their job duties away from their central workplace, in accordance with their same performance expectations and other approved or agreed-upon terms. It does not include work performed at a temporary work-site for limited duration.

The University has established this policy so that teleworking may be offered by the University as a work option to ensure competitive advantage with other employers and to promote efficiency.

Managers who are interested in discussing the feasibility of a telework arrangement, please contact the Department of Human Resources Development and Labor Relations for assistance.

Covered Employees

Employees	Is Employee Eligible?
	Yes	No
All full-time or part-time professional and classified staff (bargaining unit and non-bargaining unit) (half-time or more)	X
Temporary, intermittent, part-time (less than half-time)		X

The decision whether to allow an employee to telework is wholly within management discretion and requires approval of the Vice President for Business Affairs and Finance (or designee) and the Division Vice President, or the Provost, as noted above. The decision to permit, refuse or revoke a teleworking agreement may not be grieved or appealed except in cases alleging arbitrary or capricious decision-making in the approval of employee-initiated requests for teleworking privileges within a department or division.

Definitions:

Alternate Work Location:

A worksite other than a central workplace which may include an employee's home or satellite office where official University business is performed.

Central Workplace:

An employee's assigned place of work or duty station owned or operated by the University or a site that is the primary workstation for field-based employees. Typically, a central workplace is a duty station from which supervisors, along with employees in the same work unit, perform the functions of their jobs.

Telework/Teleworking:

A flexible work arrangement in which supervisors direct or permit employees to perform their job duties away from their central workplace, in accordance with their same performance expectations and other approved or agreed-upon terms. It does not include work performed at a temporary work-site for limited duration. Assignment to any of the University's campus sites, e.g. East Center, West Center, Cole Center, Lakeland Community College, Lorain County Community College, etc. shall not be considered a telework arrangement.

Teleworker:

An employee engaged in teleworking.

Teleworking Agreement:

A written agreement that details the terms and conditions by which an employee is allowed to engage in teleworking.

Work Schedule:

The employee's hours of work in the central workplace and/or in an alternate work location.

Department/HR Responsibility:

Departments that wish to develop telework arrangements will seek guidance from the Department of Human Resources Development and Labor Relations (Human Resources) prior to seeking approvals from the appropriate Vice President/Provost and the Vice President for Business Affairs and Finance.

University
Designates
Position/Employee:

The University may allow employees to engage in teleworking in compliance with this policy. In consultation with Human Resources, each department/division that wishes to offer teleworking opportunities must propose internal policies and procedures that identify the criteria for eligible jobs and employees. The supervisor and employee shall mutually agree upon teleworking arrangements; however, if business necessity dictates, a department may require an employee to telework or discontinue an approved telework arrangement. Telework arrangements that will be regular and/or recurrent shall be incorporated into the position description and may be required of any new incumbent into the position. Telework arrangements necessitated by special circumstances of limited duration, e.g. inaccessibility of employee's work area, etc., may be required of affected employee(s).

Conditions of Employment:

The policies and procedures that normally apply to the central workplace shall remain the same for teleworking employees, including but not limited to performance management. Teleworking assignments do not change the conditions of employment or required compliance with University policies, rules and regulations.

Terms of Teleworking Arrangements:

All teleworking arrangements shall be written and shall include the responsibilities of both the department/division and the employee. Each participant in a teleworking arrangement must sign the document that contains the terms of the teleworking arrangement. At a minimum, the document shall define the parameters of the teleworking arrangement and shall comply with the policy provisions below:

- 1) Compensation and Benefits: An employee's compensation and benefits will not change when he/she teleworks.
- 2) Safety and Liability – A department shall establish procedures that provide reasonable assurance that any materials, equipment and furniture supplied to the employee at the alternate work location comply with safety standards and the University's Policy on Off-Campus Use of University Equipment.

Advisory Note: Since the employee's home work space is an extension of the University work space, the liability for job-related accidents will continue to exist during the employee's approved work hours and in the employee's designated work location.

- 3) Restricted-Access Materials: Department supervisors may grant permission for teleworkers to work on restricted-access information or materials at alternate work locations. Teleworkers must follow University-approved security procedures in order to ensure the confidentiality and security of data.
- 4) Work Hours: The total number of hours that an employee is expected to work will not change, whether those hours are worked at the central or at the alternate work location. This does not, however, restrict the use of alternative work schedules. Departments must ensure that procedures are in place to track the work hours of employees who telework and to document the hours worked by non-exempt employees (as defined in the Fair Labor Standards Act) who are eligible to receive payment of time and one-half for hours worked over 40 per week or who are eligible to earn compensatory time.

Employees shall apply themselves to their work during designated work hours and not engage in activities that are not work-related.

- 5) Equipment and Software: If applicable, the department to which the teleworking employee is assigned shall set forth in its policies and procedures conditions by which the University will pay for telephone and other services furnished to teleworkers.

- 6) Meetings with co-workers and supervisors on University business shall be conducted at the central workplace and not at the alternate worksite. An employee whose residence serves as his/her alternate worksite shall not be eligible for compensation or reimbursement for the time and/or expense associated with travel to and/or from the central workplace. However, employees shall be entitled to travel reimbursement directly and necessarily related to their other University assignments in accordance with applicable University guidelines.

7) In the event the alternate worksite is an area within the employee's home, that area shall be specifically designated in the telework agreement.

Termination of Teleworking Agreement:

The University may terminate the teleworking agreement at its discretion. Termination of a teleworking arrangement by management may not be grieved or appealed.

Telework Overview

The Telemanager

Not every manager or supervisor is appropriate for teleworking. This should not be looked upon as a negative. Some managers can become excellent telemanagers after training in communications and measurement techniques more suited to telework.

Here are characteristics of telemanagers (managers overseeing teleworkers) that have been shown to be important:

- Has a positive attitude towards telework because he/she sees clear gains for the organization.
- Is willing to let employees telecommute; this requires trust in employees and acceptance of cultural changes within their organization.
- Has strong communication skills to make sure assignments and expectations are clearly understood.
- Manages by results and not only by monitoring work hours or managing by direct observation.
- Delegates work effectively and easily. An effective telemanager knows what results he/she needs, can decide which employees are best suited to certain types of work, makes assignments quickly and fairly and trusts that they will be done, regardless of whether they are done the way he/she would have done them.
- An effective telemanager is well organized. The teleworker is being assigned and measured on results; therefore, his or her performance and contributions to the organization's goals are contingent upon the manager's ability to be organized and aware of the teleworker's workload and performance levels. He/She is ready to make new assignments promptly, as needed.
- Effective telemanagers are open to new ideas. Telework often creates avenues for changing work methods, making them more effective or efficient. Suggestions for such changes are likely to originate from the teleworkers. A manager who is reluctant to make changes in work procedures will not be an effective telemanager.
- Effective telemanagers trust their teleworkers to complete their assignments out of sight. They also trust them to fulfill their work hours as agreed upon in the Telework Agreement.

Action Step: Based on the personalities and management styles within the organization, identify which managers have the characteristics to be good telemanagers. This must occur before teleworkers and telework opportunities are identified because if the manager is not suited, he/she shouldn't be situated as part of a department's telework program.

The Teleworker

Just as not every manager is suited to being a telemanager, not every employee is suited to being a teleworker. Some common characteristics identified that make an effective teleworker.

- An effective teleworker is well established in the organization. In general, an effective teleworker has been associated with the organization for some time and is clearly familiar with its mission and how work gets done within the organization. This eliminates guess-work and down time waiting for things to happen because the teleworker knows what needs to happen next.
- Some of the teleworker's functions should be informational in nature. This helps in identifying and maintaining quantifiable productivity measures for the telework agreement.
- An effective teleworker requires minimal supervision. A person who has been associated with the organization for some time knows his/her job and has the confidence of his/her manager. Since the manager will not be able to directly observe the teleworker's day-to-day performance, the teleworker is trusted to complete his/her assignments.
- An effective teleworker requires minimal social interaction. A major change a teleworker experiences is the lack of social interaction. Knowing his/her colleagues, through formal and informal contacts, enables a worker to feel comfortable with his/her work. Many employees need this interaction in order to succeed in their position. He/She cannot expect to make up for lost time by disrupting other employees when he/she is in the office. One reason given by many employees who return to working in the office is that they missed the interaction with co-workers and felt disconnected from the organization.
- An effective teleworker works well within his/her family structure and establishes a work schedule and location that will not be disrupted by the family. Another change the teleworker will experience is a new relationship with his/her family. Some employees prefer to get away from the home to work.

On the other hand, teleworkers generally have more time to spend with their family because they do not have to spend time preparing for and traveling to and from work. An effective teleworker prefers his/her home environment to the office. If the teleworker lives in a noisy neighborhood, he or she may not want to stay at home to work. Some personalities desire to separate their home environment from their work environment. This aspect needs to be examined closely by the employee.

- An effective teleworker is self motivated. Some personalities have a tendency to procrastinate when not pushed by the work environment, manager awareness and other factors. Other personalities are self motivated regardless of their work assignments or the location in which they work. They will always find meaningful work to do. The latter type of employee is best suited to teleworking.
- The employee should want to telework. No one should be forced or pressured to telework.
- An effective teleworker is well organized. This enables the teleworker to know what has to be done and by when. Organization helps the teleworker to be less dependent on others guiding their work. Equally important, the teleworker should have excellent time management skills. This will enable him/her to manage his/her work schedule and family life effectively.
- A potential teleworker has a track record demonstrating a high level of productivity within the organization. It has been shown that workers who meet the minimal expectation in their office position will have a tendency to become less productive teleworkers. However, this is not an absolute rule.

Action Step: Based on the personalities and work habits within the organization, identify which employees have the characteristics to be good teleworkers. Managers should have thorough discussions with potential teleworkers. No one should be forced to telework. Conversely, telework is not a right of the employee.

Advisory Note: Teleworking agreements must be designed so that a reasoned determination can be made as to the benefits of teleworking within the University. It is recognized that a public employer has a special obligation to insure that employees and work resources are being used efficiently and productively.

The decision whether to allow an employee to telework is wholly within management discretion and requires approval of the Vice President for Business Affairs and Finance (or designee) and the Division Vice President and/or Provost, as noted above. The decision to permit, refuse or revoke a teleworking agreement may not be grieved or appealed except in cases alleging arbitrary or capricious decision-making in the approval of employee-initiated requests for teleworking privileges within a department or division.
