

Randi M. Thomas, JD
Co-Founder, President & CEO
Vector Strategies, LLC

An attorney with more than 30 years' experience in both the public and private sectors, possessing a deep professional network, Randi Thomas is positioned to assist you in evaluating opportunities from every sector that will foster sustained growth for your organization. Professional experience includes litigating corporate cases at a Cleveland-based law firm and constitutional cases at two northeast Ohio county prosecutors' offices; serving on a statewide bench, the Ohio Court of Claims, appointed by the Ohio Supreme Court Justices; leading the largest regional office for former Ohio Attorney General Mike DeWine.

Randi most recently served as Vice President of Strategic Development for a Cleveland biomedical nonprofit business formation, recruitment, incubation and acceleration effort. In her role, she led the strategic development efforts in maintaining a significant presence in the world of healthcare innovation by interfacing with corporate sponsors, foundations and institutions, garnering their support as well as from decision-makers, venture development firms and other strategic alliances, including the State of Ohio through the biennial budget process.
